THE RUWAIS LNG project is set to be the first LNG export facility in the Mena region to run on clean power

Adnoc signs 15-year HoA for Ruwais LNG project

The plant has been designed to run on clean power and will leverage the latest technologies and artificial intelligence tools to drive efficiency

ABU DHABI / WAM

Adnoc announced on Monday the signing of a 15-year Heads of Agreement (LNG agreement) with SEFE Marketing & Trading Singapore Pte Ltd, a subsidiary of Germany's SEFE Securing Energy for Europe GmbH, for the delivery of one million metric tonnes per annum (mmtpa) of liquefied natural gas (LNG). The LNG will primarily be sourced from Adnoc's lower-carbon Ruwais LNG project, currently under development in Al Ruwais Industrial City, Abu Dhabi. The Ruwais LNG plant has been designed to run on clean power and will leverage the latest technologies and Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools to drive efficiency. This is the second long-term LNG supply agreement from the Ruwais LNG project, following the 15-year agreement with China's ENN Natural Gas signed in December 2023. The deliveries are expected to start in 2028, upon commencement of the facility's commercial operations. Fatema Al Nuaimi, Executive Vice President, Downstream Business Management at Adnoc, said, "This LNG agreement, the first with a European company from the Ruwais lower-carbon LNG

UAE joins IAEA Response and Assistance Network

FANR operates its Emergency Operations Centre through which it takes part in exercises and drills that aim to develop the UAE's capacity to respond to nuclear or radiological emergencies —WAM

ABU DHABI / WAM

The UAE has joined the Response and Assistance Network (RANET), a network established by the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), to provide international assistance to countries during a nuclear or radiological emergency. RANET was established in 2000, and since then 43 countries have registered their capabilities in the network, on areas including medical support, radiation survey, and other technical aspects. Through the UAE's registration in the RANET, the country's capabilities are now available for any IAEA Member State to request assistance in the case of a nuclear or radiological emergency, which may be provided following UAE approvals process. RANET capabilities registered by the UAE include radiation survey, sampling and analysis, radiological assessment and advice, medical support, and nuclear installation assessment and advice. In addition to FANR, four UAE entities have had their capabilities registered under RANET: Nawah Energy Company; Abu Dhabi Quality and Conformity Council; Al Dhannah Hospital; and Medinat Zayed Hospital. The UAE's cooperation with the IAEA in emergency preparedness and response encompasses joint exercises, including the UAE's hosting of the IAEA's ConvEx-3 exercise in 2021, an international nuclear and radiological emergency exercise involving more than 75 countries and 12 international organisations.

Burjeel announces plan to become carbon neutral by 2040

The organisation seeks to positively impact over 7 million lives per year by 2026 through various community initiatives

ABU DHABI / WAM

Burjeel Holdings has announced a new long-term Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) strategy, setting ambitious targets across four key pillars, in a bold move towards sustainable practices. At the heart of this strategy is a pledge to achieve carbon neutrality by 2040, signaling a shift towards a greener, more equitable future. Dr Shamsheer Vayalil, Founder and Chairman of Burjeel Holdings, said, "The nature of our business is clearly about sustaining our society by providing healthcare across the community, and we are seeking to align fully with the best international standards on environmental stewardship and governance. One of our key ESG priorities has been to strengthen and formalise our public market-oriented corporate governance. At the time of the IPO, we created a Board of acknowledged experts, of whom 70% are independent directors, and in 2023 we established a Business Development and Sustainability Committee to ensure that we integrate sustainability across our entire business." At the forefront of Burjeel Holdings' ESG strategy is its pledge to achieve carbon neutrality by 2040. To realise this vision, the organisation has set mid-term targets for reducing combined Scope 1 and 2 greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions by 2024. Additionally, by 2025, the organisation will develop a strategy to account for Scope 3 carbon emissions. Beyond carbon neutrality, Burjeel Holdings is committed to eliminating

Sheikha Bodour opens ‘Chapters of Islamic Art: Carpets’ exhibition

SHARJAH / WAM

Sheikha Bodour bint Sultan Al Qasimi, Chairperson of the Sharjah Investment and Development Authority (Shurooq), has inaugurated the ‘Chapters of Islamic Art: Carpets’ exhibition, at House of Wisdom (HoW) in Sharjah.

The 3-month exhibition, inspired by a section of Chapters of Islamic Art: The Private Collection of Dr Richard Ettinghausen, which was generously donated to HoW by HH Dr Sheikh Sultan bin Muhammad Al Qasimi, Supreme Council Member and Ruler of Sharjah, highlights the cultural and historic significance of artisan carpets and textiles across the Muslim world.

Fatma Al Mahmoud, HoW's Cultural Planning Manager, toured Sheikha Bodour Al Qasimi, along with Ahmed Obaid Al Qaseer, CEO of Shurooq; Mohamed Juma Al Musharrkh, CEO of Invest in Sharjah; and Reem bin Karam, Director General of the Irthi Contemporary Crafts Council, through the 4-zone exhibition, which featured physical copies and digitised versions of books and manuscripts on Islamic carpets, a display of masterfully crafted rugs, and fascinating artwork inspired by the classic “Al-shanof” motif with modern twist.

House of Wisdom's expansive lobby has been ingeniously transformed into an exhibition space, where visitors are first greeted by the Ettinghausen Book Collection on Carpets. This curated exhibition showcases a stunning array of illuminated manuscripts and large-sized books on Islamic art in textiles, meticulously selected from Dr Richard Ettinghausen's private library. Ranging from the uniquely weaved carpets of Mesopotamia (Iraq - Abbasid Period) to the intricate designs of Persian rugs, the SEHNA technique of Punjab, and the indelible Oriental carpets, each artwork tells a story of its people, landscape, and history, reflecting the diverse cultural heritage of the Muslim world.

Trends participates in international event in New York on gender equality

ABU DHABI / WAM

Trends Research and Advisory participated in an important international event on gender equality in the Arab region. Organised in New York by the Baha'i International Conference (BIC), the event highlighted the role of government institutions and civil society in promoting gender equality.

The panel speakers stressed the importance of institutional reform and broader social changes to achieve real progress. They also stressed the need to consider societal values and traditions that affect gender equality, while promoting the noble values and changing social customs that hinder women's advancement.

Researcher Aisha Al-Rumaithi, Director of the Research Department at the Trends Research and Advisory focused on the significance of the well-being of both women and men and the relationship between them. She spoke about the necessity to consider the peculiar needs of both genders and the extent to which institutions can achieve a balance between these needs.

Trends' participation in this event reflects its continued commitment to supporting development and sustainability issues through a research vision that anticipates the future with knowledge.

Asian stocks gain ahead of Federal Reserve and Japan rate decisions

HONG KONG / WAM

Asian stocks advanced Monday ahead of policy decisions this week by Japan's central bank and the Federal Reserve.

Oil prices and US futures rose. Chinese data for January-February were mixed, with property investment falling while other indicators showed improvement.

In Tokyo, the Nikkei 225 index jumped 2.4 percent to 39,639.27. Markets are awaiting a decision by the Bank of Japan on Tuesday on whether to raise its benchmark interest rate for the first time in 17 years. Since 2016, the rate has remained at minus 0.1 percent.

Signs that employers plan solid wage hikes appear to have swayed the central bank toward finally easing away from the massive monetary easing employed over many years to spur growth in a country where the population is quickly falling and aging. The last rate hike was 17 years ago.

The Hang Seng in Hong Kong was flat at 16,720.40, and the Shanghai Composite index gained 0.5 percent to 3,069.67.

Elsewhere, Australia's S&P/ASX 200 was unchanged at 7,670.60, while the Kospi in South Korea advanced 0.6 percent, to 2,681.26.

In India, the Sensex was unchanged and in Bangkok the SET was up 0.5 percent.

‘RamadanInDubai’ campaign brings exclusive shopping, memorable experiences for shoppers across city’s malls, retail districts

The initiative aims to create a unique ambience across the city that captures the true essence of Ramadan, reflecting the authentic Emirati customs and traditions that make the occasion truly special

DUBAI / WAM

As the Holy Month of Ramadan unfolds, Dubai’s bustling shopping scene is abuzz with activity, inviting both residents and visitors to immerse themselves in a unique shopping experience filled with joyous moments and unforgettable gifting opportunities. As part of the #RamadanInDubai campaign, shoppers are treated to a myriad of promotions, exclusive discounts, and diverse experiences, presented by leading shopping malls and retail stores across the city.

Launched by the Dubai Media Council under the directives of His Highness Sheikh Ahmed bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Second Deputy Ruler of Dubai and Chairman of the Dubai Media Council (DMC), the #RamadanInDubai campaign brings the public and private sectors together for the first time for a unified celebration of the Holy Month. The initiative aims to create a unique ambience across the city that captures the true essence of Ramadan, reflecting the authentic Emirati customs and traditions that make the occasion truly special.

As part of the campaign, the Dubai Festivals & Retail Establishment (DFRE) has brought residents and visitors many ways to come together to experience these memorable shopping experiences. Known over the world as a destination for shopping, Ramadan further enhances Dubai’s exceptional retail landscape by offering elevated experiences for everyone. From discovering special one-off collections by local and global brands, to taking advantage of seasonal offers across the city’s malls, there are plenty of chances to share joy in the city’s diverse shopping districts and vibrant Ramadan markets.

SHOPPING DISTRICTS TRANSFORM FOR HOLY MONTH

The shopping experience becomes a memorable moment in itself, as the spirit of Ramadan takes over malls and stores around Dubai as they are adorned in enchanting seasonal décor and sparkling light displays. After iftar, roaming entertainment brings additional fun for all visitors to enjoy.

From Mall of the Emirates to City Centre Malls across the city, Dubai’s top shopping destinations have been transformed into hubs of activity, featuring promotions, themed performances, special events, traditional experiences and exclusive ranges which cannot be found anywhere else. On Fridays to Sundays throughout the month, fireworks will light up the skies for shop-

JBR and City Walk are hosting unique artisanal outdoor markets, where visitors and residents can discover one-off pieces and the perfect Ramadan gift, whilst soaking up a well-coming atmosphere and wonderful weather. Live music, entertainment and seasonal décor will further add to the enchanting atmosphere.

Dubai Festival City Mall has transformed into a hub of heritage and culture, where visitors can experience traditional food and artisan products at a special Ramadan tent in Festival Bay. Nearby, visitors can choose gifts for friends and family at a vibrant night market at Bay by Social, which also host the city’s favourite food trucks and family friendly entertainment. Adding to the charm, the IMAGINE show, a mesmerising display of lights and water, can be enjoyed every evening. A beloved annual tradition, the Iftar cannon will signal sunset every evening. Customers with the Blue Rewards app who dine at Dubai Festival City Mall restaurants will be able to upload their receipts for a chance to win AED5,000 worth of Blue points weekly, as well as avail special Ramadan offers.

EXCLUSIVE RAMADAN COLLECTIONS

Those searching for a memorable gift this Ramadan, either for themselves or a loved one, can discover unique brand activations such as Stella McCartney’s limited-edition Rose Capsule Collection in celebration of Ramadan and Eid; and Versace is introducing an exclusive capsule collection of Women’s and Children’s designs exclusive to the Middle East. Other special shopping moments to look out for include Aldo’s anticipated Ramadan collection featuring Myriam Fares; the Guess Ramadan Capsule Collection, which blends tradition with contemporary elegance; and Guess will unveil its Ramadan Capsule Collection, which blends tradition with contemporary elegance.
