Abdullah bin Zayed meets Israel's Leader of the Opposition

ABU DHABI / WAM

HH Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Minister of Foreign Affairs, met with Yair Lapid, Leader of the Opposition in Israel, during which the latest developments in the region were discussed, particularly the deteriorating humanitarian crisis in the Gaza Strip.

His Highness emphasised the urgent need to finding a political horizon to return to negotiations aiming to achieve comprehensive peace based on the "two-state solution", which would contribute to reinforcing pillars of stability, achieve sustainable peace in the region, and end the increasing violence in the Gaza Strip.

Sheikh Abdullah affirmed the importance of working towards achieving a ceasefire and avoiding a regional spill-over, emphasising that the priority is bringing a halt to tensions and violence, and safeguarding the lives of civilians, while facilitating the immediate, safe, sustainable, and unhindered delivery of relief aid to the people of Gaza.

UAE National Pavilion showcases latest defence technologies at DSA 2024

ABU DHABI / WAM

The UAE National Pavilion is participating in the 18th edition of the Defense Services Asia (DSA) exhibition, which will take place from May 6 to 9 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

The exhibition stands as one of the most prominent defence events in the region, bringing together 1,200 of global companies specialising in the defence and security sector from over 60 nations. These companies showcase the latest products, technologies, and solutions. The UAE National Pavilion — held under the patronage of the UAE Ministry of Defence and Tawazun Council and organised by the Emirates Defence Companies Council (EDCC) — will feature a number of leading UAE-based companies specialising in defence industries and technologies, including Edge Group, Calidus, Advanced Armor Engineering (AAE), Al Yah Satellite Communications Company (Yahsat), Avantguard Holding Limited, Darwish Bin Ahmed & Sons, and the Ministry of Defence's "Al Jundi" magazine.

Capital Events will also be present to showcase the upcoming IDEX

2025 international defence exhibition. A wide range of advanced defence products and services, including electronic weapons systems, armoured vehicles, unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs), air defence systems, communications, space and satellite systems, and training & simulation, will be showcased at the pavilion.

The UAE's participation in DSA 2024 reaffirms its commitment to supporting and strengthening international cooperation in defence and security by highlighting the defence products of UAE companies, exchanging expertise, and exploring global cooperation opportunities.

Mona Ahmed Al Jaber, Chairwoman of the EDCC, said that the participation of the national pavilion aligns with the council's keenness to advance international defence and security cooperation, to learn about the latest technologies in this field, and to provide opportunities for the Council's member companies to forge new partnerships that will support the UAE defence industry's competitive edge in the Asian and international markets.

PureHealth posts triple digit net profit growth to AED491m in Q1

The group achieved revenue growth of 52%, reaching AED6.1 billion. The 85% year-on-year increase in hospital revenue is particularly noteworthy

ABU DHABI / WAM

PureHealth Holding announced its financial results for the period ended on March 31, 2024. The group achieved robust revenue growth of 52%, reaching AED6.1 billion. The 85% year-on-year increase in hospital revenue is particularly noteworthy, totalling AED4.8 billion.

This growth was propelled by a 10% year-on-year surge in total patient volumes, reaching 1.5 million patients, and a 10% rise in bed occupancy rates to 71%. Furthermore, this upward trajectory was bolstered by the consolidation of recent 100% acquisitions of Sheikh Shakhboub Medical City (SSMC) in Abu Dhabi and Circle Health Group in the United Kingdom.

As a result of increased operational efficiencies and organic growth, the group's net profit was notably strong at approximately AED491 million, up by around AED272 million from Q1 2023, with a margin improvement of approximately 2.5 percentage points to 8.0%.

Ruwad launches weather-affected business support package

SHARJAH / WAM

The Sharjah Entrepreneurship Foundation "Ruwad," affiliated with the Department of Economic Development, has adopted a package of incentives and supportive measures for its member projects affected by the recent weather conditions in mid-April.

Working in collaboration with Sharjah's local emergency and crisis team, Ruwad aims to bolster affected member projects.

Chairman Hamad Ali Abdullah Al Mahmoud underscored the foundation's unwavering commitment to supporting its national projects, standing by them through all conditions. This support is designed to maintain seamless business operations, enabling them to provide services and products to customers while also assisting them in compensating for unexpected costs or expenses. He explained that the incentive and support package provides affected projects with 100% priority funding for project assets like equipment, furniture, and raw materials. Moreover, affected projects may qualify for deferral of direct financing instalments and a grace period of up to six months for repayment.

Ruwad, in collaboration with strategic partners from governmental, semi-governmental, and private sectors, will oversee the implementation of the external support plan.

Sewa confirms readiness to deal with effects of weather conditions

Sharjah Electricity, Water and Gas Authority teams managed over 5,200 reports in Sharjah, 820 in Kalba, 299 in Khorfakkan

SHARJAH / WAM

Sharjah Electricity, Water and Gas Authority (SEWA) has affirmed its full readiness to address any repercussions of weather conditions with well-equipped teams and state-of-the-art equipment.

Between April 15 and 29, SEWA teams managed over 5,200 reports in Sharjah, 820 in Kalba, and 299 in Khorfakkan.

The authority conducted repair and maintenance operations in the central region, alongside electrical stations and transformers across all areas, to address the electrical faults resulting from the exceptional weather conditions.

The endeavours conducted by the Sharjah Electricity, Water and Gas Authority in affected areas led to the restoration of electrical service to more than 1,300 distribution substations and the repair of 376 subscribers' cables, significantly mitigating the impact of the weather event across regions in record time

Ahmed Al Bass, Deputy Director of the Electricity Distribution Department, highlighted the round-the-clock efforts of emergency teams in Sharjah to deal with reports and restore power in affected areas.

These endeavours led to the restoration of electrical service to more than 1,300 distribution substations and the repair of 376 subscribers' cables, significantly mitigating the impact of the weather event across regions in record time.

Youssef Al Hammadi, Director of the Kalba Administration, reported that the Sewa emergency department in Kalba received approximately 820 reports from April 16 to 30 and promptly responded through various communication channels, including the call centre (991).

Saud Abdulaziz, Director of the Khorfakkan Administration, emphasised the swift and efficient response of work teams in addressing the 299 reports received in Khorfakkan, adhering to the highest standards and minimising downtime. Khalifa Al Tunajji, Director of the Central Region Administration, said that the emergency maintenance efforts undertaken post-depression included extensive inspections of underground cables spanning 275,000 metres across various locations. They also encompassed maintenance work on overhead lines covering 65,000 meters.

Additionally, efforts involved installing and replacing 45 aerial transformers, maintaining 240 distribution substations, constructing and installing 25 new distribution substations, maintaining 180 RMUs, and repairing and installing 360 11 KV poles.

THE UAE is keen to expand the economic and trade cooperation with Iran to more areas of shared interest

Inaugural UAE-Iran JEC session to boost ties in economy sectors

The partnership continues to grow across various fields, serving as one of the key pillars supporting the bilateral ties, said Bin Touq Al Marri

ABU DHABI / WAM

The first session of the Joint Economic Committee (JEC) between the UAE and the Islamic Republic of Iran was held in Abu Dhabi, chaired by Abdullah bin Touq Al Marri, Minister of Economy, and Mehrdad Bazrpash, Minister of Road and Urban Development of Iran.

The session, which was attended by several government officials from both sides, explored the strengthening of cooperation in many economic sectors of mutual interest. These include the new economy, tourism, transport, entrepreneurship, energy and renewable energy, SMEs, innovation, logistics, agriculture and environment. The meeting also discussed the means to support joint efforts needed to elevate bilateral economic relations to new heights. Bin Touq noted that the UAE-Iran economic partnership continues to grow across various fields, serving as one of the key pillars supporting the bilateral ties. The UAE is keen to expand the scope of the economic and trade cooperation with Iran to more areas of shared interest, he said.

Abdullah bin Touq Al Marri, Minister of Economy, with Mehrdad Bazrpash, Minister of Road and Urban Development of Iran, during the first session of the Joint Economic Committee (JEC) in Abu Dhabi on Thursday —WAM

He stated, "The convening of the first session of the UAE-Iran JEC reflects our shared aspirations to solidify existing economic ties and expand them to the future sectors. These efforts are in line with the UAE wise leadership's vision to strengthen the country's bilateral cooperation with global partners."

Moreover, the Minister of Economy apprised the Iranian delegation of the economic developments

The inaugural UAE-Iran JEC session discussed new mechanisms to enhance trade exchanges and the key role played by the private sector in promoting economic cooperations witnessed by the UAE's business environment over the recent years. Most notably, these include the amendments made to the Commercial Companies Law to allow 100 per cent foreign ownership, modernisation of visa and residency systems and introduction of self-employment and green residency pathways to enhance the country's attractiveness to talent, investors, employers and businesses.

Dubai International Chamber gears up to lead trade mission to Indonesia, Vietnam

DUBAI / WAM

Dubai International Chamber, one of the three chambers operating under the umbrella of Dubai Chambers, is embarking on a trade mission to Southeast Asia from May 5 to 10. The chamber will lead a delegation of local companies to Indonesia and Vietnam as part of the 'New Horizons' initiative, which supports the expansion of Dubai-based businesses into priority global markets.

As part of its preparations, the chamber hosted a special briefing session for members of the delegation to discuss the agenda for the upcoming mission. Delegates will participate in a series of prearranged B2B meetings and benefit from networking opportunities with representatives of companies from Indonesia and Vietnam, as well as engaging in insightful dialogues with key public and private sector stakeholders in both countries.

Mohammad Ali Rashed Lootah, President and CEO of Dubai Chambers, commented, "Our upcoming trade mission aims to encourage local companies to capitalise on the diverse trade and investment opportunities available in Indonesia and Vietnam, which hold huge potential due to their strategic location in Asia."

'New Horizons' was launched last year as part of the Dubai International Chamber's efforts to support local companies in establishing their commercial activities in new markets.

The initiative is aligned with Dubai Chambers' strategic priority of supporting the expansion of Dubai businesses into global markets and is set to play a vital role in unlocking the objectives of the Dubai Economic Agenda (D33).

Dubai Financial Market unveils new digital platform 'iVestor'

DUBAI/ WAM

The Dubai Financial Market (DFM) announced the launch of the upgraded stand-alone iVestor App, a digital platform set to offer digital financial management for investors.

The iVestor app allows direct subscription in IPOs and Arena opportunities and underscores DFM's commitment to enhance investment accessibility and efficiency in the region. Moreover, the app provides investors with a convenient snapshot of their securities portfolio with DFM and their market value.

Developed in collaboration with Emirates NBD and Network International, the iVestor card, initially introduced in 2010, improved dividend receipt for investors. The newly evolved iVestor App expands its functionality, empowering users with a comprehensive suite of features designed to streamline financial management.

The app allows investors to onboard seamlessly, subscribe to both public and private offerings, track spending, monitor their securities portfolio and conveniently manage dividends — all through their smartphones.

Additionally, the app facilitates easy top-ups and transfers, allowing users to send and receive money between iVestor accounts in just a few clicks. Users can create saving goals with automated actions that align with their financial objectives and apply for virtual cards for secured online shopping.

Investor's can also onboard their children on iVestor and help them build their financial knowledge through IPO investments and track their spending within the configured limits.

Moreover, the app is seamlessly connected with the xCube trading app, enabling users to transfer funds and commence trading immediately. The app also simplifies shared expenses, allowing users to split bills.

Discover EUROPE Travel Summit returns to Dubai

DUBAI / WAM

The annual Discover Europe Travel Summit returns to Dubai, offering an immersive experience into the enchanting landscapes and diverse cultures of Austria, Germany and Switzerland. Taking place on May 4 and 5 at Palazzo Versace Dubai, this two-day event represents a pivotal opportunity for the European nations to showcase their unique attractions, forge strategic partnerships, and strengthen ties with GCC travel professionals. More than 100 partners from the three countries — representing states, cities, hotels, and tourist attractions — will be present, fostering connections and collaboration.

The Discover Europe Travel Summit serves as a vital prelude to Arabian Travel Market, the region's largest travel exhibition, offering a dynamic platform for dialogue, collaboration, and knowledge exchange on key industry trends and emerging

More than 100 partners from Austria, Germany and Switzerland — representing states, cities, hotels, and tourist attractions — will be present, fostering connections and collaboration technologies. With an impressive agenda comprising more than 4,000 curated meetings and attendance of at least 120 buyers in the culture and luxury travel sectors of Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, and the UAE, the summit is poised to facilitate fruitful discussions and unveil exciting opportunities for growth and collaboration within the tourism sector.

Reflecting on the significance of the event, Yamina Sofo, Director of the Marketing & Sales Office at the German National Tourist Office (GNTO) GCC, commented, "We're excited to showcase the innovative experiences Germany offers travellers from the GCC. From breathtaking mountain adventures to cutting-edge wellness retreats, Germany caters to the most discerning traveller."

"Germany is committed to sustainable travel practices, offering travellers from the GCC eco-friendly experiences while minimising environmental impact. The Discover Europe Travel Summit allows us to showcase these initiatives and collaborate with partners to create extended itineraries that encourage travellers to stay longer and explore the rich diversity of our regions,"

“Austria boasts a rich tapestry of experiences, from majestic mountains and charming villages to vibrant cities and world-class cultural events. We're eager to share this diversity with travel professionals from the GCC. This year, we're delighted to introduce Carinthia, a stunning state famous for its spectacular scenery that combines crystal-clear lakes and majestic mountains, as our new partner for the Middle East market

Michael Tauschmann, Head of Markets, Middle East and India, Austria Tourism

As the Discover Europe Travel Summit convenes, travel professionals will gain in-depth knowledge of Austria, Germany and Switzerland, by uncovering hidden gems and seasonal highlights, ensuring their clients experience the very best these captivating destinations have to offer year-round

Beyond their individual strengths, Austria, Germany, and Switzerland combine to offer a captivating trifecta for GCC travellers seeking a truly unforgettable European experience

she added.

Michael Tauschmann, Head of Markets, Middle East and India, Austria Tourism, emphasised Austria's commitment to providing unparalleled travel experiences by saying, "Austria boasts a rich tapestry of experiences, from majestic mountains ner for the Middle East market. The Discover Europe Travel Summit allows us to showcase the unique offerings of different regions within Austria. Whether it's the scenery of Tyrol or the historical charm of Vienna, Austria caters to every travel dream," he added.

Livio Goetz, Director GCC of Switzerland Tourism, highlighted Switzerland's legendary natural beauty and renowned hospitality, stating, "Switzerland's pristine mountains, crystal-clear lakes, and picturesque landscapes have captivated travellers for generations. Our diverse range of accommodation options caters to every traveller's preference. From luxurious city hotels boasting elegant architecture and state-of-the-art facilities in prime locations to tranquil mountain retreats overflowing with traditional charm, guests can find the perfect place to unwind and experience the highest level of service."

He further emphasised the unique appeal of exploring Switzerland by train, citing it as an enchanting way to uncover the country's hidden treasures and magnificent landscapes. "Switzerland's extensive rail network, coupled with the convenience of the Swiss Travel Pass, offers travellers a seamless and immersive way to discover the country's iconic landmarks and scenic beauty," added Goetz.

Beyond their individual strengths, Austria, Germany, and Switzerland combine to offer a captivating trifecta for GCC travellers seeking a truly unforgettable European experience.

Seamless travel connections weave these destinations together, allowing visitors to embark on a journey that encompasses the dramatic peaks of the Alps, the rich cultural heritage of charming towns, and the cosmopolitan buzz of vibrant cities. This geographical diversity is reflected in the impressive number of overnight stays GCC travellers enjoyed across the three countries, with over 3.6 million overnight stays recorded in 2023.

As the Discover Europe Travel Summit convenes, travel professionals will gain in-depth knowledge of Austria, Germany and Switzerland, by uncovering hidden gems and seasonal highlights, ensuring their clients experience the very best these captivating destinations have to offer year-round.
