Utilising Genius, the project objective is to understand how to optimise fleet operations while minimising congestion and emissions.

“We are excited to kick off this first commercial project and partnership with Analog,” said Gabriel René, CEO of VERSES. “Genius is ideally suited for smart cities where there are many stakeholders, each with different systems, hardware and methods for capturing and processing real-time sensor data.”

“We aim to empower Analog with the tools to transform data from various sources into a unified model upon which Genius agents continuously generate insights and recommendations in order to optimise activity, with the goal of producing significant cost savings and efficiency improvements for fleet operators.”

“Our vision of AI-powered edge computing is well aligned with VERSES’ vision of a smarter world and we are eager to leverage Genius to not only provide business value but also to amplify human skills and simplify everyday life,” said Alex Kipman, Analog Founder and CEO. “This smart city project is a testament to Abu Dhabi’s commitment to advancing technology for the benefit of society: Alex Kipman

ICO launches 190 humanitarian projects in Egypt

International Charity Organization’s humanitarian projects in Egypt include building homes, Quran memorisation centres, agricultural wells, providing medical care, orphan sponsorship, and establishing healthcare centres —WAM

AJMAN / WAM

A delegation from the International Charity Organization (ICO) has visited Egypt to oversee the launch of 190 humanitarian and development projects.

The projects include building homes, Quran memorisation centres, agricultural wells, providing medical care, orphan sponsorship, and establishing healthcare centres.

Dr Khaled Abdulwahab Al Khaja, ICO Secretary-General, emphasised that being on the ground and directly managing these efforts has been key to earning the trust of thousands of donors and establishing the organisation as a leading force in philanthropy. He lauded the UAE’s leadership for inspiring their mission to make the country a beacon of generosity.

The delegation’s visit coincides with the organisation’s “Orphans and Healthcare” campaign, which provides critical support to vulnerable communities in the UAE and abroad.

UAE Cybersecurity Council Chairman wins ISC2 Award

ABU DHABI / WAM

Dr Mohammed Hamad Al Kuwaiti, Chairman of the UAE Cybersecurity Council has been awarded Lifetime Achievement Award by the International Information Systems Security Certification Consortium (ISC2).

The ISC2 Global Achievement Awards programme recognises individuals who have made contributions to a safe and secure cybersecurity world.

Dr Al Kuwaiti said that winning the award is a testament to the wise leadership’s strategic visions to invest in national cadres and provide unlimited support to achieve top positions globally in various fields and sectors. “This reinforces the UAE’s position as a leading country in empowering, nurturing and supporting its national cadres and achieving global achievements.”

AD Ports achieves progress in its 2023 sustainability agenda

In a report, the group highlighted significant improvement in its decarbonisation plans, demonstrating its proactive approach

ABU DHABI / WAM

AD Ports Group announced on Thursday the release of its 2023 Sustainability Report, in which it highlights significant progress in its decarbonisation plans, demonstrating its proactive and forward-thinking approach to addressing global sustainability challenges. The report reflects AD Ports Group commitment, as a listed entity on the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange, to sharing performance with stakeholders and transparency in operations.

As a key player in the maritime, industrial, and logistics sectors, the group's initiatives align with UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and sustainability objectives set by Abu Dhabi and the UAE. The report explores the group's journey, partnerships, and collaborative efforts, aspiring to shape a more sustainable and resilient future for all. It emphasises the pivotal role of AD Ports Group in fostering positive environmental, social, and economic impacts (ESG).

Some of the wide-ranging achievements covered in the report were the successful introduction of 124 Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives, an 84% employee job satisfaction rate, a 57% increase in the total number of employee training hours and a 42% increase in the number of female employees.

The group also received several prestigious awards for its Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG) work

- In 2023 AD Ports Group reduced the environmental intensity of container port handling operations through efficiency gains, energy savings and decarbonisation efforts
- The groups' greenhouse gas (GHG) emission intensity fell by 2%, in 2023 to 11.67 kilograms of carbon dioxide equivalent per TEU from 11.93 kgCO2e per TEU in 2022

during the year from the United Nations, the Harvard Business Council, an International Business Award and an Abu Dhabi Sustainable Business Leadership Award, among others.

A major highlight was the group's progress in decarbonisation. In 2023, the group reduced the environmental intensity of container port handling operations through efficiency gains, energy savings and decarbonisation efforts. Its greenhouse gas (GHG) emission intensity, an industry measure of the environmental impact of industrial activity, fell by 2%, in 2023 to 11.67 kilograms of carbon dioxide equivalent per TEU (Twenty Foot Equivalent Unit) (kgCO2e per TEU) in 2023 from 11.93 kgCO2e per TEU in 2022.

The reductions were achieved through greater efficiency within the group's container handling operations, more energy savings at its terminals, and ongoing decarbonisation efforts such as the increased use of electricity from solar photovoltaic (PV) units. The 2023 Sustainability Report reported a 7% reduction in electricity consumption in tensity. The improvements were amongst a broader set of sustainability gains that also included a 174% increase in the quantity of solid waste that was recycled.

The solar PV electric generating capacity integrated into its 2023 operations has contributed to a reduction of 5,000 tonnes of CO2 equivalent using clean energy. The group has solar PV integration projects planned at Khalifa Port, Zayed Port and its administrative headquarters in Abu Dhabi, and at a multipurpose port operation in Safaga, Egypt, which the group manages under a concession for Egypt's Red Sea Ports Authority.

Captain Mohamed Juma Al Shamisi, AD Ports Group Managing Director and CEO, said, “In our determined effort to foster equitable growth and inspired by our leadership's wise vision, AD Ports Group has taken significant strides in diversifying the UAE's economy, while adhering to our sustainability commitments.”

‘Make-A-Wish’ fulfills dreams of 21 sick children from Gaza

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Make-A-Wish Foundation, in collaboration with Emirates Humanitarian City, has fulfilled the wishes of 21 sick children from Gaza who are currently hosted in the UAE.

The foundation organised a special event at Humanitarian City, featuring cartoon characters, magic shows, and a variety of food and sweets.

The event was attended by Mubarak Al-Qahtani, the official spokesperson for Emirates Humanitarian City, along with other media personalities.

Al-Qahtani commented, “This gathering not only grants the children's wishes, but also reinforces the UAE's dedication to humanitarian causes and its support for those in need. Our country's vision is rooted in the belief that every child, regardless of their circumstances, deserves hope, dignity, and the opportunity to thrive.”

The children from Gaza and their mothers expressed their gratitude to the UAE for its generous hospitality and for providing them with safety and security. They also thanked the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the organisers of Humanitarian City for creating moments of joy and happiness by fulfilling their wishes.

Hani Al-Zubaidi, CEO of Make-A-Wish Foundation UAE, said, “In keeping with the UAE's long-standing humanitarian tradition of supporting its brothers and sisters, we were committed to fulfilling the wishes of these children who are facing significant humanitarian and health challenges. Our goal was to ignite hope and optimism in their hearts during this difficult time for their homeland and to provide them with the happiness they have long desired.”

ADSCC, Burjeel partner to expand bone marrow transplant

The collaboration aims to enhance access to care for patients with blood cancer, autoimmune diseases, and others

ABU DHABI / WAM

Abu Dhabi Stem Cells Centre (ADSCC) and Burjeel Holdings PLC have announced a strategic partnership to expand bone marrow transplant and cellular therapy in the group's flagship facility, Burjeel Medical City (BMC).

This collaboration aims to enhance access to advanced care for adult and pediatric patients with blood cancer, genetic diseases, autoimmune diseases, and others. The strategic move will pave the way for an extensive, integrated ecosystem for advanced research and cellular therapy, and further reinforce Abu Dhabi's status as a global healthcare destination.

Under the agreement, ADSCC will work together with Burjeel Medical City to increase accessibility for patients in the UAE and across the region.

AD-BMT expertise and the shared vision of both institutions align with Abu Dhabi's mission to establish itself as a global centre of medical excellence and innovation. Both new and existing BMC and ADSCC patients will benefit from this partnership.

The partnership also focuses on leveraging regenerative medicine services. ADSCC is at the forefront of offering cutting-edge treatments for orthopedic, neurological, rheumatological, autoimmune, and burn-related conditions through the use of the latest disruptive technologies of the fourth industrial revolution. These include the Internet of Things (IoT), artificial intelligence (AI) and Big Data, in addition to expanding the use of electrical technologies and solutions in the transport sector in line with the Dubai Green Mobility Strategy 2030.

Al Tayer added, “We strive to support the Dubai Quality of Life Strategy, which sets several energy targets for 2033, including expanding the network of electric vehicle charging stations across the emirate.”

“Our initiatives aim to reduce carbon emissions in the transport sector in line with the Dubai Clean Energy Strategy 2050 and the Dubai Net Zero Carbon Emissions Strategy 2050.” “Launched in 2014, Dewa’s EV Green Charger initiative provided the first public electric vehicle charging infrastructure in the region. It has since played a pivotal role in developing a network of over 700 charging stations across the emirate, including more than 400 green charging stations operated by Dewa. This has also helped increase the number of electric vehicles to over 30,000 in Dubai — a figure expected to double in the coming years.”

Arada finishes another 1,000 homes at Masaar

SHARJAH / WAM

Sharjah developer Arada has finished the second and third phases at Masaar, the forested megaproject based in the Suyoh district of Sharjah. All 986 homes in the Kaya and Robinia districts have now begun the handover process as one of the UAE’s most exciting new master communities reaches the 50 percent completion mark.

Villas and townhouses in Kaya and Robinia range from two-bedroom townhouses to five-bedroom Forest Villas, all of which are equipped with smart home features and located next to Masaar’s signature feature, a lushly landscaped and walkable ‘green spine’ containing 70,000 trees.

Ahmed Alkhoshaibi, Group CEO of Arada, said, “Masaar continues to capture the public imagination with its unique forest landscaping and nature-inspired design. With the community now half complete, we are redoubling our efforts to complete the entire masterplan by the end of 2026.”

DUBAI / WAM

Dubai Culture and Arts Authority (Dubai Culture) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Dubai Police and Dubai Customs to enhance their joint cooperation in preserving, protecting, and safeguarding Dubai’s archaeological assets.

The MoU reflects the parties’ collective keenness to achieve Dubai’s visions and aspirations and enhance its position as a global tourist destination by exchanging expertise and experiences and investing in the efforts made to safeguard antiquities.

The MoU was signed in the presence of Hala Badri, Director General of Dubai Culture, Nasser Al Neyadi, CEO of Ports, Customs and Free Zone Corporation, and Colonel Mubarak Saeed Al Ketbi, Director of the Organised Crime Department at Dubai Police.

The MoU establishes effective communication channels among the three parties, ensuring “Archaeological sites are crucial markers of Dubai’s history, showcasing the vibrancy and depth of the emirate, and its potential to bolster its standing on the global heritage map through the preservation of these sites

ing a swift response to reports related to the archaeological sector including facilitating the exchange of information, studies, and reports. The agreement also focuses on building professional capabilities in archaeological inspection, enhancing skills, and integrating technology and digitisation tools to improve processes.

Muna Faisal Al Gurg, CEO of the Culture and Heritage Sector at Dubai Culture, expressed a strong commitment to building cooperation with various government entities in Dubai, enhancing the Authority’s management of archaeological sites under its mandate. She stated, “Archaeological sites are crucial markers of Dubai’s history, showcasing the vibrancy and depth of the emirate, and its potential to bolster its standing on the global heritage map through the preservation of these sites. This MoU facilitates the enhancement of public awareness about the importance of preserving these assets, documenting excavation areas, and creating a shared database that aids in their protection. This partnership underscores our cultural responsibility of safeguarding Dubai’s tangible and intangible heritage.”

Brigadier General Harib Mohammed Saeed Al Shamsi, Director of the General Department of Criminal Investigation, said, “Dubai Police’s commitment to nurturing collaborations and aligning with the government’s vision for integrated action is unwavering. This approach is vital in achieving strategic goals and ensuring that the ambitions of our government and wise leadership are fully realised. It extends to the regulation and preservation of antiquities, where we work closely with our partners to safeguard our national values, identity, and cultural heritage. This collaboration reflects our dedication to supporting Dubai’s ongoing efforts to preserve its rich historical legacy.”

Mansoor Al Malik, Executive Director of the Policies and Legislation Division at Dubai Customs, stated, “At Dubai Customs, we are enthusiastic about deepening our collaboration with the Dubai Culture & Arts Authority and Dubai Police. Our goal is to enhance efforts in preserving historical artifacts, managing valuable art pieces, and protecting sites of archaeological and cultural significance.”

“The signing of this Memorandum of Understanding with both Dubai Culture and Dubai Police represents a major advancement in our joint mission to safeguard these priceless artifacts. This initiative aligns with Dubai’s ambition to become a leading global and regional hub for tourism and culture. Through this agreement, our organisations will advance knowledge sharing, co-develop digital solutions, integrate systems, and implement specialised training programs, all aimed at bolstering the archaeological and cultural sectors in their vital efforts to preserve these cherished artifacts.”

Dubai Metro Music Festival launches September 21

DUBAI / WAM

Brand Dubai, the creative arm of the Government of Dubai Media Office (GDMO), in collaboration with the Roads and Transport Authority (RTA), on Thursday announced that the highly-anticipated fourth edition of the Dubai Metro Music Festival will take place from September 21-27.

A weeklong celebration of global music, the festival will see five metro stations - The Dubai Mall, Mall of the Emirates, BurJuman, Union, and DMCC - transform into vibrant hubs of rhythm and melody from diverse cultures around the world.

Metro commuters will be treated to a unique experience, as the metro comes alive with captivating daily performances by 20 talented musicians from the UAE and across the world. The musicians will showcase their creative talents across a wide range of instruments, genres, and styles, adding a special touch to people’s commute.

Rashed Al Mulla, Director of Marketing and Corporate Communications at RTA’s Corporate Administrative Support Sector said: “RTA is proud to partner with Brand Dubai for the fourth edition of the Dubai Metro Music Festival, a highlight on Dubai’s creative events calendar, coinciding with the 15th anniversary of the Dubai Metro, the city’s most popular mode of public transport.”
