METAL PARK STORAGE HUB in Kezad is the world's first pay-as-you-go solution for the metal industry

Metal Park unveils AED110mn storage hub in Kezad Free Zone

The facility has direct access to Khalifa Port via a modular road and Etihad Rail network, connecting Abu Dhabi to the northern emirates

ABU DHABI / WAM

Khalifa Economic Zones Abu Dhabi - KEZAD Group and its strategic client Metal Park announced the launch of the first phase of Metal Park's state-of-the-art Storage Hub in KEZAD. The Stor-Hub will offer world-class storage solutions and support services for businesses in the region.

We are committed to the growth of ecosystems that are driven by innovation and prove to be the catalyst for industrial growth in KEZAD, contributing to the diversification and growth of Abu Dhabi's economy

> Abdullah Al Hameli, CEO of Economic Cities and Free Zones at AD Ports Group

Located in KEZAD Free Zone, the Metal Park Storage Hub is the world's first payas-you-go solution for the metal industry and the first independent warehouse for metal storage.

Metal Park aims to complete the AED110 million Storage Hub in three phases with a combined storage capacity of 350,000MT and 54,000CBM shelved storage

Located in KEZAD Free Zone, the Metal Park Storage Hub will offer world-class storage solutions and support services for businesses in the region —WAM

- Metal Park aims to complete the AED 110 million Storage Hub in KEZAD Free Zone in three phases, with a combined storage capacity of 350,000 MT and 54,000 CBM shelved storage exclusive to metals
- Phase one of the project spans around 93,000 sqm and will feature 26 overhead cranes up to 40MT and 55 loading bays for trucks and automated guided vehicles, with the capacity to load and offload 48,000MT in a day exclusive to metals.

Phase one of the project spans around 93,000 sqm and will feature 26 overhead cranes up to 40MT and 55 loading bays for trucks and automated guided vehicles (AGVs), with the capacity to load and offload 48,000MT in a day.

Other sophisticated features include vertical storage capability, truck loading way with cantilever system, three weighbridges — 2x15 metres length, each with a weighing capacity of 150MT, and 1x30 metres with a weighing capacity of 150MT. The Storage Hub functions as a gated community with 24x7 surveillance and security modalities in place.

Strategically located in KEZAD Free Zone, the Storage Hub has direct access to Khalifa Port via a modular road, as well as Etihad rail network, and highways connecting Abu Dhabi to northern emirates and the GCC region.

Abdullah Al Hameli, CEO of Economic Cities and Free Zones at AD Ports Group, stated, "The opening of the first-of-its-kind Storage Hub marks a significant milestone in the journey of Metal Park as well as AD Ports Group's Economic Cities & Free Zones."

"We are committed to the growth of ecosystems that are driven by innovation and prove to be the catalyst for industrial growth in KEZAD, contributing to the diversification and growth of Abu Dhabi's economy."

Saleh Shahrestani, Chairman of Metal Park, said that as the region's first metal fulfilment centre, it will help traders and stockists reduce excess overhead costs in a fluctuating metal market. Additionally, it will enhance manufacturers'capabilities, enabling them to expand their distribution network while optimising production space to boost productivity and efficiency.

Emirati doctors position UAE as global healthcare destination: Al Olama

Dr Mohammed Salim Al Olama, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Health and Prevention, stressed that Emirati doctors are the backbone of the healthcare system, dedicating their expertise and efforts to safeguarding community health and enhancing patients' quality of life. In a statement on Emirati Doctor's Day, observed annually on March 11, he said, "Today, we honour the heroes of the health sector who strive tirelessly to protect the health of our community and improve the quality of life for patients. They have consistently demonstrated steadfast commitment to their country and society, contributing their knowledge and skills to the development of a world-class healthcare system that aligns with the highest international standards."

Dr Al Olama emphasised that the continued efforts of Emirati doctors play a key role in realising the UAE's vision, which seeks to build an advanced, future-ready healthcare sector, capable of meeting challenges with efficiency and resilience while driven by supportive policies and an innovative work environment.

The UAE's unlimited support for its doctors has driven a transformational leap in healthcare services, solidifying the country's position as a global leader in modern medicine

Dr Mohammed Salim Al Olama, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Health and Prevention

He stated that Emirati Doctor's Day is both a tribute to the exceptional dedication of our doctors and a commitment to investing in medical talent through ongoing development and training, alongside providing the latest technologies to enable them to perform their duties efficiently and accurately.

Rehabilitation in Dubai, said that the accreditation marks a significant milestone in the centre's efforts to provide specialised training programmes in addiction medicine, further strengthening its position as a leading institution in preparing doctors and specialists to the highest international standards. "Over the years, we have consistently enhanced our curricula and training programmes to provide an advanced educational environment. Our curricula, training facilities, and scientific research mechanisms underwent a rigorous evaluation in line with Arab Board standards, culminating in this significant achievement," he said.

Erada Centre's Arab Board accreditation reaffirms its commitment to training and qualifying medical professionals to the highest international standards

Ameri highlighted the centre's commitment to fostering scientific research and encouraging doctors and trainees to publish specialised studies, contributing to the advancement of addiction treatment regionally and internationally.

He added that the centre continues to strengthen its academic partnerships with leading institutions, including the University of Colorado in the United States, alongside its ongoing collaboration with Mohammed Bin Rashid University of Medicine and Health Sciences in Dubai. These efforts aim to enhance training programmes and introduce new therapeutic specialisations, particularly in adolescent rehabilitation.

The Arab Board delegation, comprising members from several Arab countries, praised the advanced level of training programmes offered by the centre, which align with global standards.

In the past year, His Highness Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice President, Deputy Prime Minister, and Chairman of the Presidential Court, inaugurated the 'Light & Peace Museum' at the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque Centre, unveiling the 'Diya – A Universe of Light' immersive experience within the Peace Dome. The museum features five sections: "Tolerance – A Guiding Light,' 'Sanctity and Worship – The Three Grand Mosques,' 'Precision and Beauty – The Spirit of Invention,' "Tolerance and Openness – Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque,' and 'Universal Coexistence'; besides a dedicated family and children's section.

The museum offers interactive exhibits that incorporate advanced multimedia technologies, showcasingrare and unique artifacts that reflect the museum's message while providing engaging sensory storytelling, allowing visitors to actively engage with its rich cultural content and fostering dialogue between civilizations. A key highlight of the museum is the 'Diya — A Universe of Light' interactive experience, a 360degree immersive light display enhanced with sensory and auditory effects, including wind simulations that further elevate the experience. Since its inauguration in late November, the museum has drawn significant interest from dignitaries, scholars, and enthusiasts of Islamic civilization and arts, welcoming 9,728 visitors to date.

In 2024, the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque Centre reaffirmed its pivotal role among Islamic thought institutions by presenting an enlightened image of Islam through its religious programs, which were introduced in a fresh new format. Throughout 2024, the centre released 115 episodes across these cultural and religious series, further solidifying its mission to promote Islamic knowledge and heritage to a global audience.

portunities to explore diverse fields and access valuable books that enrich minds and expand knowledge.

Throughout Reading Month, which takes place from February 20 to March31, Dubai Public Libraries will host literary discussions and storytelling events featuring notable authors and speakers. A highlight of the programme is a session at Al Safa Art & Design Library, presented in collaboration with the Sultan Bin Ali Al Owais Cultural Foundation. Renowned writer and researcher Abdul Ghaffar Hussain will present his book, 'Witness to the Era of Zayed,' shedding light on the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan's formative years in Al Ain. Additionally, author Obeid Ibrahim Bu Melha will discuss his novel 'The Soldier's War' in a dedicated session at the same venue. Further enriching the programme, journalist Ayesha Sultan will lead a 'Newspaper Article' workshop, focusing on journalistic writing techniques. Participants will have the opportunity to visit the 'Burj Rashid' art exhibition for inspiration before submitting their articles for the Arab Youth Media Creativity Award.

As part of the 'Library Talks' series under the 'School of Life' programme, Al Safa Art & Design Library will also welcome filmmaker and creative director Mustafa Jawad to conduct 'Animation Essentials: From Concept to Creativity,' a workshop covering everything from idea development and scriptwriting to character design, animation techniques, and editing.

Catering to younger audiences, Dubai Public Libraries has curated an engaging line-up of interactive classes.

NBF arranges $100 million syndicated financing deal

NBF acted as the Arranger, Facility, and Security Agent for the syndicated transaction totaling $100m to support Pure Cement LLC

DUBAI / WAM

The National Bank of Fujairah (NBF) has successfully closed a single currency term and letter of credit syndicated transaction totalling $100 million to support Pure Cement LLC in the construction of a clinker production unit with a capacity of 6,500 tonnes per day (TPD), and an 8.5 MW Waste Heat Recovery-based captive power plant.

With a total project cost of $135.97 million, the financing will support the procurement of plant, equipment, and fixed assets, ensuring the successful execution of the project.

NBF acted as the Arranger, Facility and Security Agent, leading the transaction in collaboration with Emirates NBD Bank (PJSC) and The National Bank of Ras Al Khaimah (PSC), which each contributed $25 million.

This transaction is a testament to NBF's ability to structure and deliver complex syndicated deals that drive business growth and industrial progress," said Adnan Anwar, CEO at NBF. "As the lead banker, we go beyond financing—we serve as a strategic partner, delivering tailored financial solutions that drive longterm success and strengthen our reputation as a trusted financial partner across the region."

NBF hosted a formal signing ceremony at its headquarters, bringing together representatives from Emirates NBD, RAKBANK, and key industry stakeholders.

DUBAI / WAM

Al Etihad Payments, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Central Bank of the UAE (CBUAE), which operates the UAE's of the national card switch (UAESWITCH) and the UAE's domestic card scheme "Jaywan", and Visa, on Monday announced their agreement to jointly introduce "Jaywan- Visa" debit and prepaid cards in the UAE.

This co-badging partnership between Al Etihad Payments and Visa strengthens the continuous joint efforts to support the UAE authorities' ambition of accelerating the transition towards a digital economy.

Al Etihad Payments and Visa will work closely with local financial institutions, fintech and merchant partners to issue to their customers co-badged cards carrying a set of benefits and value-added services that meet the market needs.

With both Jaywan and Visa logos on the cards, customers will be able to pay securely in the UAE and at Visa's more than 150 million merchant partners across 200 countries and territories while travelling abroad or shopping online.

Under this agreement, domestic transactions will be processed through the national card switch, UAESWITCH, while cross border transactions outside the GCC area will be processed through Visa's global network "VisaNet".

DCT Abu Dhabi announces cultural events for Ramadan

Department of Culture and Tourism - Abu Dhabi has curated a diverse programme, highlightinf the emirate's traditions, arts, literature, and heritage

ABU DHABI / WAM

¶he Department of Culture and Tourism – Abu Dhabi (DCT Abu Dhabi) has unveiled a month-long programme of cultural events. activities, and workshops for Ramadan 2025, offering residents and visitors a chance to celebrate the traditions and spirit of the holy month.

As part of its commitment to preserving and promoting Abu Dhabi's cultural heritage while fostering creativity and community engagement, DCT Abu Dhabi has curated a diverse programme that highlights the emirate's traditions, arts, literature, and culinary heritage. Whether through immersive storytelling, thoughtprovoking discussions, or hands-on workshops, these events enable visitors to connect with the essence of Ramadan in meaningful and memorable ways.

> Whether through immersive storytelling, thought-provoking discussions, or hands-on workshops, Department of Culture and Tourism – Abu Dhabi's events enable visitors to connect with the essence of Ramadan in meaningful and memorable ways

Among the heritage-focused events, Al Ain Oasis will host Ramadan's Harees every Friday, reviving the tradition of preparing and distributing Harees, a staple Emirati dish. Visitors can learn about its cultural significance and preparation methods while enjoying this dish, which was inscribed on UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in 2023.

Meanwhile, Before Suhoor at Bait Mohammed bin Khalifa will offer a blend of cultural entertainment and interactive experiences every weekend until March 15. The evenings will feature themed nights showcasing Emirati, Syrian, Pakistani, and Iraqi music and dance, as well as a range of traditional games such as chess and Carrom.

At Al Jahili Fort, the Traditional Games Championships from March 12-15 will celebrate Emirati heritage through individual and group games, public challenges, and educational workshops, with prizes for competition winners.

In Al Dhafra, Ramadan at Al Dhafra Fort on March 11-12 will bring together the community for iftar gatherings, panel discussions, children's activities, and a contest highlighting traditional Emirati attire.

Meanwhile, Ramadan Nights at Heritage Village, running from March 14-21, will provide a deep dive into UAE heritage through interactive entertainment, workshops, and culinary experiences.

In addition to heritage activities, the programme features several community events aimed at fostering togetherness. Ramadan at Al Hosn, from March 8-23, will offer a nostalgic glimpse into Abu Dhabi's past with Majalis Ramadan gatherings, retail stalls, workshops, and entertainment suitable for all ages.

A special session at the Cultural Foundation on March 8 celebrated the 30th anniversarv of the Salon Al Multaga literary platform, featuring a discussion with Nujoom Al-Ghanem and Asma Al-Mutawa.

On March 15, The Prophetic

Etiquette discussion at Zayed Central Library will explore etiquette values from the Prophet's biography, led by author Dr. Ghosna Al-Amri in an exclusive women's session.

Another panel discussion, The Language of the Qur'an and Early Arab Beliefs, will take place at the Cultural Foundation on 20th March, with Dr Nizar Qublan and Reem Al-Kamali examining the linguistic and philosophical aspects of the Qur'an.

For those looking for a lively and interactive experience, Ramadan Arcade at Manarat Al Saadiyat will return from 15th to 25th March. This modern community gathering will blend arcade and board games, live performances, art installations, and creative workshops. Poetry and storytelling will also feature in the Ramadan programme, including Al Ain in the Memory of its People on March 14 at ZOI Café, celebrating World Poetry Day with Mohammed Al-Neyadi, Al-Hath Al-Kuwaiti, and Sheikha Al-Jaberi.

Additionally, Ramadan Islamic Philosophy Talks at Louvre Abu Dhabi on March 8-15 will explore the influence of Islamic thought on global narratives. Held in collaboration with NYU Abu Dhabi Institute, these discussions will be introduced by traditional Hakawati storytelling performances, reviving the oral

> DWTC's Hospitality team, renowned for their expertise in preparing menus for some of the region's most prestigious events, presents The Mailis with an elevated Ramadan experience, featuring exceptional service and award-winning culinary craftsmanship

Mahir Abdulkarim Julfar, Executive Vice President, Dubai World Trade Centre, said, "Ramadan is a time of reflection, generosity, and coming together as a community. At DWTC, we take great pride in creating spaces that nurture connection and celebrate the spirit of giving. Over the years, The Majlis at DWTC has become a cherished destination where families. friends, and colleagues gather to share in the traditions of the Holy Month. As we welcome another blessed Ramadan, we look forward to sharing this special time with our guests at The Majlis." This year, The Majlis continues its commitment to giving back and marks The Year of Community by renewing its partnership with the Tarahum Charity Foundation and UAE Food Bank. The Mailis will once again donate thousands of meals to those in need, contributing to the UAE's initiatives in reducing food waste and fostering community spirit during the Holy

IFTAR AT THE MAJLIS AT DWTC

As the sun sets, The Majlis welcomes guests to a generous iftar featuring a rich selection of seasonal specialties, global flavours, and freshly prepared dishes from live cooking stations. Diners can savour authentic Middle Eastern favorites and traditional Emirati delicacies, including the signature ouzi, comforting thareed (lamb stew), and the ever-popular luqaimat drizzled with date syrup. Guests can also enjoy cuisines from around the globe, with generous Asian, Indian and Mediterranean selections. To complete the experience, an assortment of classic Ramadan sweets and desserts, including The Majlis' famed date pudding, is also on offer. Iftar is priced at AED 235 per adult, AED 115 for children aged 6 to 12, while little ones under 6 dine for free. Service runs from Iftar until 8:30 PM.

Set against a backdrop of elegant lounge seating and vibrant Ramadan decor, Suhoor at The Majlis offers a relaxed and inviting atmosphere.

Share an Iftar feast to remember at Terra this Ramadan

Gather with loved ones at Terra Abu Dhabi's tranquil oasis this Ramadan and enjoy an inviting iftar to remember

amadan is a time for reflection, for connecting with the local community, for expressing gratitude and for making pledges that lead to self-improvement. For many people, the Holy Month is also a magical opportunity to gather with friends and family and make memorable moments while enjoying a delicious iftar feast.

Terra, the hugely popular restaurant, is deeply rooted in the community and its calming rustic nestled spaces serving plates that celebrate locally grown ingredients and produce providing the ideal setting for such a gathering. This Ramadan, the Michelin Guide selected restaurant will be serving up a variety of flavourful dishes that are perfect for sharing at iftar.

As well as dates packed with sweetness and soul-warming soups to break your fast, Terra's culinary team serves exciting starters such as watermelon salad with heirloom tomatoes, feta and jalapenos for a surprising kick. A nutritious lentil salad with a zaatar dressing and pine nuts is lifted with pieces of pear. Moreish sweet potato croquettes come with aubergine and a seductively sweet pepper chutney, while the succulent wagyu meatballs with yoghurt and a tomato sauce are one of the menu's highlights.

Moving onto main courses, Terra's Executive Chef Ibrahim Guner proudly serves juicy lamb chops with smoked eggplant harissa; or an eye-catching salt-baked sea bass accompanied by a crunchy fennel salad. For a truly hearty dish, choose the short ribs with soft ribbons of pappardelle pasta and a rich veal jus or lobster mafaldine with cherry tomatoes and fresh basil. To finish, opt for the wonderful chocolate and pistachio kunafa roll a unique twist on a dish that holds a special place in the hearts of Arabic people.

As well as its welcoming atmosphere and contemporary interior design, Terra is known for its mocktails. Refreshing, inventive and only gently sweetened, the menu includes a new
