UAE, Ireland sign pact to establish Joint Economic Commission

The pact between the countries is part of an effort to drive mutual economic growth and increase private sector engagement

ABU DHABI / WAM

Dr Thani Al Zeyoudi, Minister of State for Foreign Trade, and Niamh Smyth, Ireland Minister for Trade Promotion, AI and Digital Transformation, signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) aimed at enhancing economic and technical cooperation and the establishment of a Joint Economic Commission between the United Arab Emirates and Ireland.

The signing is part of a broader effort to drive mutual economic growth and increase private sector engagement between the two nations.

The MoU aims to strengthen bilateral trade relations and establish a Joint Economic Committee to facilitate ongoing dialogue and collaboration. It will explore collaboration in various sectors, including trade and investment, energy efficiency, renewable energy, infrastructure development, the digital and green economy, sup6 The signing of the MoU is a testament to our commitment to enhancing bilateral relations and unlocking the significant potential that exists between our two ply chain resilience, food security, healthcare technology, and other areas of shared interest. The key points of the MoU include developing and diversifying economic and technical cooperation founded on shared values of equality and mutual benefit. The Joint Economic Committee will promote business delegation visits, facilitate the exchange of information on economic developments and programs, and strive to create a favorable two-way investment

Additionally, the MoU encourage both parties to engage and foster collaboration at international exhibitions, conferences, and seminars, and addressing any obstacles hindering bilateral economic cooperation.

Dr Thani Al Zeyoudi remarked, "The relationship between the UAE and Ireland is one of mutual respect and shared ambition. With a foundation built on trade and cooperation, we are well-positioned to explore new avenues for investment and collaboration. The signing of this MoU is a testament to our commitment to enhancing bilateral relations and unlocking the significant potential that exists between our two countries."

M42 Foundational Partner of Abu Dhabi Global Health Week 2025 for 2nd year

ABU DHABI / WAM

M42, a global health leader powered by artificial intelligence (AI) and technology, will return as Foundational Partner at Abu Dhabi Global Health Week (ADGHW) 2025 for the second consecutive year.

Held under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Chairman of the Abu Dhabi Executive Council, and hosted by the Department of Health - Abu Dhabi (DoH), the second edition of Abu Dhabi Global Healthcare Week will take place from April 15 to 17 at ADNEC.

Centred around the compelling theme, "Towards Longevity: Redefining Health and Well-being," this year's Abu Dhabi Global Healthcare Week edition will bring together global leaders, experts and pioneers across healthcare, science and technology.

This year, M42 will again join forces with the Longevity Forum of Abu Dhabi Global Healthcare Week to bring a distinguished lineup of global health visionaries and leading tech experts to its stage.

Building on this year's theme of Abu Dhabi Global Healthcare Week, M42 will explore the three dimensions of health: (1) M42 and its ambitions; (2) the individual, owning their health; and, (3) the collective, uniting government, business and people, for the common good.

Hasan Jasem Al Nowais, Managing Director and Group Chief Executive Officer of M42, said, "By empowering individuals to take ownership of their health and forming strategic partnerships across disciplines, sectors and borders, we are not just responding to the needs of today, we're shaping a healthier tomorrow."
