UAE President, VPs congratulate King of Netherlands on King's Day

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan has sent a message of congratulations to His Majesty King Willem-Alexander of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, on the occasion of King's Day.

His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai, and His Highness Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice President, Deputy Prime Minister and Chairman of the Presidential Court, sent similar congratulatory messages to King Willem-Alexander and to Prime Minister Dick Schoof.

ABU DHABI / WAM

The UAE has established itself as a global leader in digital infrastructure and artificial intelligence (AI) integration across government and private sectors, driven by innovative initiatives and significant investments in both infrastructure and skilled human resources.

In 2017, the UAE government launched the "UAE Strategy for Artificial Intelligence," aiming to enhance government efficiency, develop a digital ecosystem, and position the country as a top investor in AI technologies by 2031. The strategy focuses on sectors such as transportation, renewable energy, education, health, and the environment.

This vision has resulted in the UAE leading in AI and blockchain adoption, making it a global frontrunner. The country has been the global leader for nine consecutive years in the fibre-to-the-home network coverage, reaching 99.5 percent of its total area.

It also ranked first in the world for mobile speeds and second for fixed broadband speeds during March 2025, according to Ookla reports,

Adibf showcases initiatives to boost public cultural, intellectual awareness

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Abu Dhabi International Book Fair (ADIBF) serves as a platform for national institutions to showcase a variety of innovative initiatives aimed at enhancing cultural and intellectual awareness within the community, coinciding with the "Year of Community".

The Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Knowledge Foundation (MBRF) is showcasing its activities and initiatives that promote a culture of reading and strengthen the public's connection with books.

In statements to the Emirates News Agency (WAM), Jamal bin Huwairib, CEO of the MBRF, said that the Abu Dhabi International Book Fair has become one of the major international exhibitions, attracting significant global participation. He noted that the foundation's pavilion hosts over 100 diverse events, showcasing several key initiatives.

These initiatives include "Bil Arabi" "My Family is Reading," the "Dubai International Programme for Writing," and "Knowledge Lounge," along with numerous seminars and panel discussions.

Bin Huwairib emphasised that the fair is a key scientific and intellectual event, stressing the importance of broad community involvement, especially among the youth, as reading is essential for knowledge sustainability and cultural awareness. Launched in 2013, the "Bil Arabi" is one of MBRF's flagship initiatives aimed at promoting the Arabic language globally, strengthening its use among youth on social media, and positioning it as a tool for knowledge and innovation. The initiative focuses on increasing Arabic content on digital platforms, developing research projects, and translating global resources into Arabic.

The "My Family is Reading" promotes daily reading habits within families by providing curated book collections, including globally acclaimed works translated into Arabic, encouraging knowledge enrichment across all age groups.

ATM 2025 opens, unites travel professionals worldwide

DUBAI / WAM

The 32nd edition of Arabian Travel Market (ATM) opens at Dubai World Trade Centre, bringing together more than 2,800 exhibitors and over 55,000 travel professionals from 166 countries.

Underscoring the growing importance of ATM in the global tourism landscape, international exhibitors account for 67% of companies showcased at the event, while the Middle East comprises 33% of exhibitors this year.

Based on the theme, "Global Travel: Developing Tomorrow's Tourism Through Enhanced Connectivity", ATM 2025 explores how the future of tourism will be shaped by connectivity across borders, industries and communities.

The 32nd edition of Arabian Travel Market will focus on how connectivity enables a more sustainable, inclusive, and globally integrated travel industry, an idea that will be explored across the show floor, from the insightful ATM Conference to targeted networking sessions.

Danielle Curtis, Exhibition Director for the Middle East, Arabian Travel Market, said, "ATM 2025 is on track to break records in terms of both attendance and exhibitor participation.

This week, we look forward to welcoming travel professionals from all travel sectors and verticals, including the leisure, business events, luxury and corporate travel sectors."

"To accommodate the growing interest in ATM, we have added two additional halls this year and will deliver the ATM Conference Programme across three dynamic content stages—the Global Stage, Future Stage and Business Events Stage. I'm particularly looking forward to IBTM@ATM, a dedicated business events zone, and ATM Travel Tech, which highlights the transformative role of technology in shaping the future of the industry."

Chinese publishing takes part in Adibf in spirit of ‘Cultural Caravan’

The country’s publishing houses introduced contemporary Chinese literature (including children’s literature) at the event

ABU DHABI / GULF TIME

On April 26, 2025, the 34th Abu Dhabi International Book Fair (ADIBF) was grandly opened at the Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre. This book fair is like a bridge across time and space, since the Chinese publishing industry carried out the civilizational exchanges between China and Arab countries with abundant books for the Silk Road and in the spirit of “Cultural Caravan”, bolstering the spread of Chinese books and wisdom among different cultures.

At this fair, around 11 publishing houses, including China Education Publishing & Media Group and People's Publishing House, displayed nearly a thousand high-quality publications, to mainly promote General Secretary Xi Jinping's works and their related study materials in Chinese and Arabic, to the mainstream Arab society, and display high-quality China-themed books, including General Secretary Xi Jinping's works and their related study materials in Chinese and foreign languages, Chinese original science fiction books, books commemorating the 80th anniversary of the victory in the Anti-Fascist War, translations of Chinese and Arabic classics, Chinese Painting Series Throughout History, Chinese Yearly Books of 2024, as well as other exquisite books and series in China. Particularly, it introduced contemporary Chinese literature (including children's literature) that aligns

The Abu Dhabi International Book Fair is one of the largest and most influential international book fairs in the West Asia and North Africa region with the reading preferences of Arab readers. A lot of Arab readers stopped at the Chinese exhibition booths to browse the exhibited books, and even bought books on the spot.

The “Cultural Caravan” of Chinese publishers not only brought a wealth of book resources but also facilitated the cultural exchange between Chinese and Arab civilizations through a series of carefully planned cultural activities

The “Cultural Caravan” of Chinese publishers not only brought a wealth of book resources but also facilitated the cultural exchange between Chinese and Arab civilizations through a series of carefully planned cultural activities. For example, the China-Arab Educational Publishing Exchange Conference injected new vitality into the cooperation in the education sector between the two countries. The Chinese Language Talent Competition in

UAE schools provided a platform for local students to showcase their achievements in learning Chinese, and allow the charm of the Chinese language to shine in a foreign country. The Abu Dhabi International Book Fair was founded at first in 1991, and hosted by the Department of Culture and Tourism of Abu Dhabi and specifically organized by the Abu Dhabi Arabic Language Centre.
