UAE President receives US President Trump in official ceremony at Qasr Al Watan

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan with US President Donald Trump, during an official welcome ceremony at Qasr Al Watan in Abu Dhabi on Thursday

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan on Thursday welcomed US President Donald Trump, who is in the UAE on a state visit. An official welcome ceremony was held for President Trump upon his arrival at Qasr Al Watan in Abu Dhabi.

As the motorcade entered the palace grounds, the US President was greeted by a ceremonial honour guard on horseback, a procession of riders on camels, and performances by Emirati folk groups celebrating the occasion. A community group also took part in the ceremony, including a number of outstanding students from space camps, as well as astronauts and space mission engineers. Their presence underscored the UAE's continued commitment to engaging with diverse groups in its national development efforts.

His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed then escorted the US President to the dais of honour, where the national anthems of both countries were played. An honour guard was assembled, a 21-gun salute was fired in tribute to the visit, and groups of children waving the flags of both nations lined the ceremonial route.

President Trump also toured the "Guided by the stars" exhibition, which showcases the UAE's journey in space exploration and highlights the early vision and interest of the nation's Founding Father, the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan, in this field.

UAE-US partnership boosts global clean energy shift

The strategic energy partnership between the United Arab Emirates and the United States continues to reinforce both countries' shared vision for a sustainable future. This collaboration is marked by significant joint investments in clean and renewable energy technologies, aimed at bolstering global energy security and supporting emerging economies.

A key initiative is the UAE-US Partnership for Accelerating Clean Energy (PACE), launched in November 2022, which seeks to mobilise US$100 billion in financing and investment to deploy 100GW of clean energy by 2035.

As part of this effort, the two countries announced in January 2023 a $20 billion alloca-

In support of innovation, the Abu Dhabi Department of Energy signed agreements with the University of Arizona and the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA) to explore advanced clean energy technologies, including solar power in space and climate acceleration tools.

The United States remains a core market for Masdar, which is targeting a clean energy portfolio of 25GW in the United States within a decade. Masdar's portfolio in the US comprises wind, solar and battery storage projects in California, Texas, New York, and New Mexico, reflecting the company's long-term commitment to transforming energy systems.

Families cornerstone of sustainable development: Minister of Family

ABU DHABI / WAM

Sana bint Mohammed Suhail, Minister of Family, has reaffirmed the UAE's commitment to supporting families as the cornerstone of sustainable development, on the occasion of International Day of Families.

In a statement marking the occasion, the Family Minister highlighted the pivotal role of the family in shaping the nation's identity and development. She said that since the founding of the UAE, the family has been at the heart of national progress, serving as a source of care, support, and emotional and intellectual stability for generations.

"In the UAE, the family is not merely a social unit, it is the nucleus upon which generations rely for support, care, and emotional and intellectual stability. Its role extends from instilling national identity and Emirati culture to passing down traditions from one generation to the next, ensuring our roots remain firmly connected to our proud heritage and promising future," she said.

The minister noted that this year's International Day of Families theme strongly aligns with the UAE's vision, emphasising the family's role as a key driver of sustainable systems across all sectors.

"In the UAE, we firmly believe that the family is the bedrock of sustainable development. We reaffirm our commitment to advancing family-oriented policies and empowering and supporting families as the enduring foundation of our societies and our shared future," she concluded.

Digital School showcases its experience at eLearning Africa 2025

It held strategic meetings aimed at driving digital transformation in the continent's education sector

The Digital School, an initiative by Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Global Initiatives (MBRGI), participated in the 18th edition of the eLearning Africa Conference and Exhibition, held in Dar es Salaam,

The Digital School presented its leading experience in accelerating digital transformation in education, forging impactful partnerships to provide advanced learning opportunities for students in underserved areas, and promoting international cooperation in education development.

As a key partner of the conference, the Digital School led a high-level delegation that included strategic partners, including the "Ataya" initiative by the Emirates Red Crescent (ERC) and the Centre of Excellence for Applied Research and Training (CERT).

eLearning Africa is the continent's largest and most influential platform dedicated to digital education and skills development. This year's edition attracted over 1,500 participants from more than 80 countries, including 20 ministers, policymakers, experts, and represeninternational tatives organisations.

The UAE's sponsorship of the event aligns with the "Ataya" initiative's 2025 pledge to dedicate the proceeds of its annual exhibition to support e-learning projects in Africa, in collaboration with the Digital School, through a portfolio of leading initiatives and programmes.

During the conference, the Digital School signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology of the United Republic of Tanzania to enhance cooperation in digital education and empower African Al Muhairbi, Director of the Ataya Project and a key partner of the Digital School in the Africa E-Learning Initiative.

The MoU was signed by Dr. Waleed Al Ali, Secretary-General of the Digital School, and Professor Caroline Nombo, Permanent Secretary at the Ministry.

In addition, the Digital School announced the launch of its first regional office in Tanzania to support the "SkillED Academies" Project.

The initiative is in collaboration with IIT Madras in Zanzibar, acting as the academic partner, and CERT, under a trilateral agreement.

The new office will support digital education and field-based training across Africa, engaging in applied research, hands-on training, and the development of educational programmes tailored to national priorities of African countries.

The UAE delegation to the 2025 Conference included Dr. Waleed Al Ali, Hend Al Muhairbi, The Digital School presented its leading experience in accelerating digital transformation in education, forging impactful partnerships to provide advanced learning opportunities for students in underserved areas, and promoting international cooperation in education development

Khalid Al Hammadi - Acting Chief Business Officer and Vice President of Education and Training at CERT, Mark Regilly -Director of Institutional Development and Strategic Partnerships at CERT, and Al Reem Al Mutawa from the Digital School.

Dr Waleed Al Ali stated that the Digital School's prominent participation in the conference reflects growing international confidence in its innovative model for advancing digital education. "The growing recognition and adoption of the model across African nations and global development partners," he added.

During the event, the Digital School launched new initiatives to support education in Africa and held strategic meetings aimed at driving digital transformation in the continent's education sector.

In his remarks at the ministerial session, Dr Al Ali stressed that in today's world, digital learning is not a luxury but a necessity—a bridge to hope, a pathway to dignity, and a promise of a better future, especially for communities struggling to access quality education.

Professor Caroline Nombo welcomed the collaboration with the Digital School, stating, "We have recently developed our national curricula to emphasise the importance of technology in education."

Legal Capacity: 1-Property Owner (Property Type: Flat, Property No: 203, Plot: 132-0, Emirate: Dubai, Location: Al Khairan First)

Warnee Details: Name: MOSHTAK FEILI Nationality: Sweden Deed No: 784198524787003

Deed No; 784178524787003

Notice Subject: Legal Notice, Financial Claim and Property Eviction

Notice Recitals:

Warmer's Address: Emirate of Dubai - United Arab Emirates

Phone No: 050457822 Email: aalyy@me.com

1) Whereas Warmer is the (Owner) of the property which located in the

Emirate of Dubai — Al Khairan First area — Flat No (203) — Plot No

(132-0) — DM No (415-8724) — Makani No (3324088309),

Which is leased to the Warmee, under the lease agreement of the eriod from 29/03/2025 till 28/03/2026 with a rental amount of (AED 165,000) yearly.
2) First: Whereas, the Warnee (Tenant) refrained from paying the

First: Whereas, the Warnee (Tenant) refrained from paying the amount of (AED 165,000) owed by him, which is the due rental value for the period from 29/03/2025 till 28/03/2026, under the bounced cheque No (000020) due on 10/04/2025 drawn on Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank, which is bounced due to Irregular Signature on 05/05/2025.

Second: Whereas, the Warnee is still refusing to pay the rental value despite his occupation of the property, the Warner has no choice but to warn him in accordance with this Notice that he must pay within thirty days or vacate the leased property.

Whereas Article (25) of Law NO. (33) of 2008 Clause (1) Paragraph (A) states:

(A) states:
"The landlord may request to evict the tenant from the property

before the expiry of the lease term in any of the following cases

If the tenant does not pay the rent or any part thereof within thirty days from the date on which the landlord notified him to pay". - If the tenant does not pay the rent or any part thereof within thirty days from the date on which the landlord notified him to pay".

Claim: Therefore,

The Warmer (Landlord) asks the Warnee with necessity to pay the due rental value owed by him, as the Warnee (Tenant) refrained from paying the amount of (AED 165,000) owed by him, which is the due rental value for the period from 29/03/2025 till 28/03/2026, under the bounced cheque No (000020) due on 10/04/2025 drawn on Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank, which is bounced due to Irregular Signature on 05/05/2025. With a commitment to pay any continuous rental value of (AED 62,000) annually, within a maximum period of thirty days from the notice receiving date or to vacate the property and hand it over to the Warner with the same situation as delivery and free of concerns and occupants, to pay all the amounts of Water, Electricity and A/C consumptions till the effective eviction date, otherwise the Warner will have to take all legal measures that preserve his right, including filing from the Warnee's failure to vacate the leased premises, and asking the Warnee to pay charges, expenses and attorney fees.
