The agreement grants ADNOC perpetual and exclusive rights to utilise Tubacex's Sentinel Prime premium tubular joint connection technology while reducing costs and ensuring supply chain resilience.

Tubacex will establish a dedicated R&D centre in Abu Dhabi. This facility will act as a hub for advanced engineering and train highly skilled technicians in-country — contributing to the development of local talent.

Musabbeh Al Kaabi, ADNOC Upstream CEO, said, "This strategic partnership secures ADNOC access to an important technology for completing oil and gas wells, reinforcing our role as a reliable global energy provider and our efforts to boost domestic manufacturing capacity. We welcome Tubacex's investment in a new research and development centre in Abu Dhabi which will enable knowledge and technology transfer; help develop local talent and support the goals of the Make it in the Emirates initiative."

Fourth 'Make it in the Emirates' kicks off in Abu Dhabi

Spanning four days, Make it in the Emirates 2025 will explore key topics including AI-driven manufacturing, smart industrial transformation and national content, advanced manufacturing and industrial entrepreneurship, along with major announcements and offtake deals expected across each track —WAM

ABU DHABI / WAM

The fourth edition of Make it in the Emirates kicked off today under the theme "Advanced Industries Accelerated".

The event runs until 22nd May at the ADNEC Centre Abu Dhabi, with broad local and international participation from decision-makers, officials from both public and private sectors, entrepreneurs, investors, industrialists, experts, innovators and financial institutions.

Spanning four days, Make it in the Emirates 2025 will explore key topics including AI-driven manufacturing, smart industrial transformation and national content, advanced manufacturing and industrial entrepreneurship, along with major announcements and offtake deals expected across each track.

The day-one events will commence under the title The UAE's Vision - Shaping the Future of Manufacturing. The day will also include a ministerial keynote highlighting the redefinition of industry, trade and investment, and a ministerial leadership panel on Integrating Transnational Supply Chains: International Industrial Alliances & Partnerships.

This year's edition features 720 exhibitors across a space of 68,410 square metres, more than 300 speakers, and showcases over 3,800 products. The event also includes announcements of new projects, initiatives and investment opportunities across 12 vital sectors.

Winners of the third edition of the Make it in the Emirates Awards will be honoured, followed by a Trailblazers Talk session sharing a notable success story. Other sessions include panels exploring What it Takes to Take the Made in the Emirates Brand Globally and The Future of Supply Chains: Strategic Investments and Regional Hubs.

ARYA by Citi Developers commissions Alec Monopoly for its waterfront Neo-Luxury

DUBAI / WAM

Citi Developers unveils ARYA, a residential statement on Dubai Islands, where form and feeling are balanced. A space shaped by calm geometry, natural materials, and purposeful artistic direction.

To enhance this vision, Citi Developers has commissioned the art from globally acclaimed artist Alec Monopoly, who is contributing a selection of exclusive works that elevate key spaces within the tower.

As part of this journey, guests had a rare opportunity to witness the artist at work during an exclusive contract signing ceremony at the Citi Developers experience center, offering an intimate glimpse into Alec Monopoly's first painting for ARYA.

"ARYA is a quiet departure from the expected," says Zoraiz Malik, CEO of Citi Developers.

"We wanted the spaces to feel alive—not with noise, but with energy. Alec's work brings that — a touch of irreverence within refined restraint."

From the immersive Galore Ground Floor with Alec Monopoly's grand graffiti in the triple-height lobby to the horizon-defining Eleventh Sky, ARYA offers a sensory journey through wellness, water, and wonder. Roman thermal baths, bespoke hammams, cinematic lounges, and suspended rooftop bars are not simply amenities — they are the true inspiration for the lovers of Neo-Luxury.

"Make it in the Emirates 2025" exhibition, organised by the Ministry of Industry and Advanced Technology at the ADNEC Centre in Abu Dhabi.

Signing on behalf of the parties were Eng. Khalifa Musabab Al Tunaiji, CEO of the Sharjah Agricultural and Livestock Production Establishment "IKTIFA," and Ahmed Saeed Belyouha, Chairman of the Emirates Macaroni Factory.

This milestone agreement took place at the UAE's leading industrial event, where the Department of Agriculture and Livestock and its investment arm, "IKTIFA", are showcasing projects from Sharjah's sustainable organic food security system, along with a variety of its organic products.

According to the agreement, the Emirates Macaroni Factory will manufacture "Saba' Sanabel" organic pasta using world-class sustainable and eco-friendly practices. This collaboration ensures the continued availability of high-quality, healthy products from "IKTIFA" and supports the expansion of the "Saba' Sanabel" product range across the UAE.

The initiative is aligned with Sharjah's sustainable organic food security framework and reinforces the objectives of the "Make it in the Emirates" initiative by boosting local production and reducing reliance on food imports in critical sectors.

Dr. Eng. Khalifa Musabab Al Tunaiji stated, "In line with the visionary leadership of His Highness Sheikh Dr. Sultan bin Muhammad Al Qasimi, Supreme Council Member and Ruler of Sharjah, the Sharjah Agricultural and Livestock Production Establishment 'IKTIFA' is committed to strengthening its partnerships with the private sector. This effort supports our goals of expanding our diverse range of organic and safe products for all segments of society."
