MOCCAE, EGF to power UAE SMEs driving food security, AgriTech

The agreement brings together two national entities committed to supporting SMEs operating in the areas of food and water security

ALAIN/ WAM

The Ministry of Climate Change and Environment (MOCCAE) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Emirates Growth Fund (EGF) to catalyse the growth of UAE-based companies shaping the future of food, agriculture, and environmental resilience.

The agreement was signed during the Emirates Agriculture Exhibition and Conference 2025 in Al Ain in the presence of Dr Amna bint Abdullah Al Dahak, Minister of Climate Change and Environment, and Najla Al Midfa, Vice Chair and Managing Director of EGF.

This strategic partnership brings together two national entities committed to supporting SMEs operating in the areas of food and water security, agricultural innovation and local production, environmental technologies, and climate-aligned business models.

Together, MOCCAE and EGF aim to unlock new opportunities for UAE-based businesses to lead in building a more self-sufficient, sustainable, and resilient national economy. From securing the country's food supply to advancing environmental innovation, the collaboration reflects a shared vision of empowering the private sector to drive lasting impact.

Emirates announced as official partner of Al Ain FC

During the 2025 FIFA Club World Cup, the Emirates logo will appear on the sleeve of the Club's training jerseys and on the back of the training jerseys during all home and international matches starting next season

DUBAI / WAM

Emirates and Al Ain Football Club have today announced a partnership which will see the airline as an Official Partner of the Club.

The partnership comes as Al Ain FC marks a historic milestone, earning a spot in the 2025 FIFA Club World Cup.

The Club will compete at the prestigious FIFA tournament kicking off on 14 June in the US. Emirates will also become the Official Airline Partner of the Club during the 25/26 season.

The partnership underscores the airline's ongoing commitment to supporting and growing the UAE's status as a world-class sports destination and epicentre for elite athletic competitions and professional clubs. The UAE's flourishing football ecosystem has cultivated exceptional talent and provided clubs with the platform to excel on the international stage.

Emirati designers dazzle at Watch and Jewellery Middle East Show

SCCI is committed to support young Emirati talents and enhancing their role in the national economy: Al Owais

SHARJAH/ WAM

A captivating showcase of hand-crafted gold and diamond jewellery by twenty Emirati female designers has drawn significant attention at the 55th Watch and Jewellery Middle East Show, which concludes today at Expo Centre Sharjah.

These exquisite pieces were displayed under the "Emirati Goldsmiths" platform, an initiative by the Sharjah Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SCCI) aimed at empowering local designers and connecting them with over 500 regional and international exhibitors.

This year's platform welcomed new designers from across the UAE, each presenting collections inspired by the country's rich cultural heritage and natural environment. Crafted from gold and gemstones, many designs incorporated traditional "Talli" handicrafts in innovative, modern forms, blending heritage with contemporary artistry. Among the most talked-about creations were the "Zayed Lantern," the "Palm Necklace," the "Well" design, and the "Emirati Dama'a," all recognised for their originality and exceptional craftsmanship.

Ajman CP witnesses signing of MoU to develop Ajman Port worth AED 1 billion

AJMAN / WAM

HH Sheikh Ammar bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Crown Prince of Ajman and Chairman of the Executive Council, witnessed the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Department of Port & Customs Ajman (DPC), and Hutchison Ports, a global port investor, developer and operator, for the expansion and development of Ajman Port's infrastructure with a joint investment worth AED 1 billion.

Under the MoU, a development plan will be drawn up for Ajman Port in accordance with the best global practices. The goal is to enhance handling efficiency in terms of performance, safety, and operational speed; attract new shipping lines; align with digital transformation plans; and launch AI-powered programmes for port operations through an integrated 15-year plan aimed at managing, operating, and developing the port, solidifying its position as a vital logistics hub in the region.

HH Sheikh Ammar bin Humaid Al Nuaimi stated: "We welcome the signing of the MoU between the Department of Port & Customs Ajman and Hutchison Ports, which paves the way for a strategic, exceptional, and vital project that reflects the status of Ajman and supports its Vision 2030, enhancing its leadership and competitiveness on the global economic map."

HH added, "The Emirate of Ajman enjoys a developed and attractive investment environment, supported by a continuously evolving business ecosystem and the opening of new horizons for local and foreign investment. We believe that port development is an investment in the future of trade, food security, and economic growth."

The Crown Prince of Ajman emphasised that developing Ajman Port will play a key role in stimulating the local economy by supporting supply operations and facilitating export and import activities through the provision of sustainable, eco-friendly infrastructure, while focusing on developing national talents and equipping them with modern port management skills.

The MoU was signed by Sheikh Dr Mohammed bin Abdullah Al Nuaimi, Chairman of the Department of Port & Customs Ajman, and on behalf of Hutchison Ports by Andy Tsoi, Managing Director for the Middle East and Africa Division at Hutchison Ports.

Sheikh Dr Mohammed bin Abdullah Al Nuaimi

stated that the MoU reflects the aspirations of HH Sheikh Humaid bin Rashid Al Nuaimi, Supreme Council Member and Ruler of Ajman, and HH Sheikh Ammar bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Crown Prince of Ajman and Chairman of the Executive Council, to establish strategic partnerships focused on technology transfer, expanding investment opportunities, and building an integrated operational system based on the highest international standards in maritime and logistics operations.

UAE Government launches Chief AI Officers' Training Programme to enhance future tech leadership

DUBAI / WAM

In line with the UAE's ongoing efforts to enhance its position as a global hub for developing future technologies, the UAE Government has launched the Chief AI Officers' Training Programme.

Spearheaded by the Office of Artificial Intelligence, Digital Economy, and Remote Work Applications, the programme is held in collaboration with the University of Birmingham in Dubai. The initiative aims to upskill and empower AI leaders across federal government entities, ensuring sustained progress in adopting and developing smart solutions. It represents a strategic move to enhance government readiness, fast-track advanced technology integration, and reinforce the UAE's global leadership in artificial intelligence.

Omar Sultan Al Olama, Minister of State for Artificial Intelligence, Digital Economy, and Remote Work Applications, stated that investing in leadership is essential to building a sustainable and innovation-driven future.

"Empowering leaders with the right tools and knowledge drives a culture of positive transformation, fuels national ambitions, and empowers leaders capable of driving innovation and proactively shaping future opportunities," he said.

Al Olama added that the UAE Government remains committed to nurturing national talent and creating a competitive, innovation-led ecosystem rooted in technology and sustainable development, which are the key pillars that support the UAE's vision for global excellence.

The two-week executive training programme combines academic theory with practical experience. It equips Chief AI Officers with a deep understanding of the latest AI trends, governance models, and sector-specific applications, empowering them to lead transformative projects within their respective entities.
