Abu Dhabi Arabic Language Centre launches 'Child Reads' initiative The event offers children a delightful reading experience that reflects the spirit of the Year of Community

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Abu Dhabi Arabic Language Centre (ALC), in collaboration with the College of Education at the United Arab Emirates University, launched the 'Child Reads' event on Thursday at the Abu Dhabi Children's Library within the Cultural Foundation.

The event offers children a delightful reading experience that reflects the spirit of the Year of Community and aligns with the campaign's objectives of promoting the Arabic language and emphasising the importance of reading in nurturing a generation that embraces it as a daily habit. The initiative, which hosts around 70 children, accompanied by their parents, aims to instil a love of reading in young minds, encourage family engagement, and equip teachers with the tools, strategies, and resources to foster early reading skills.

It features immersive reading sessions designed to stimulate imagination, enhance language abilities, and promote meaningful family interaction, underlining
