launching new initiatives that support the development goals of both nations, with a focus on empowering national companies and enhancing collaboration between the public and private sectors, in a way that supports mutual sustainable economic growth and prosperity.

Dr Sultan Al Jaber held a series of meetings with senior leaders from major Chinese companies, including Wang Yuetao, Chairman of ZhenHua Oil, Liao Zengtai, Chairman of Wanhua, a leading chemicals manufacturing company; Liu Haoling, President of the China Investment Corporation (CIC); Dai Houliang, Chairman of China National Petroleum Corporation (CNPC), one of the world’s largest energy and petrochemical companies; Zhang Chuanjiang, Chairman of China National Offshore Oil Corporation (CNOOC); Zhang Lei, Chairman of Envision, specialising in renewables and smart energy management solutions; Song Hailiang, Chairman of China Energy Engineering Corporation (CEEC), active in energy and infrastructure projects; and Chen Guanfu, Chairman of POWERCHINA International.

The meetings focused on the latest developments in co-operation across energy sectors, including renewables, oil and gas, LNG, refining, and petrochemicals, as well as strategic shipping and storage.

They also explored ways to enhance investments in priority areas of mutual interest and potential industrial infrastructure projects, in line with both countries’ shared interest to advancing industrial and technological partnerships that support sustainable development, facilitate knowledge transfer and localisation, and boost global competitiveness.

China remains the UAE’s largest trading partner, with total bilateral trade exceeding US$100 billion in 2024, reflecting a year-on-year growth of 7%, driven primarily by an 18% increase in imports.

In the first quarter of 2025, non-oil trade between the two countries grew by approximately 18% compared to the same period last year, supported by a 32.5% rise in exports, a 20.2% increase in re-exports, and a 12.7% growth in imports.

Dr Sultan Ahmed Al Jaber, UAE Minister of Industry and Advanced Technology, Managing Director and Group CEO of ADNOC, met with Lan Fo’an, China’s Minister of Finance, and Liu Jianchao, Head of the International Department of the Central Committee of the Communist Party (CPC) of China, and Zou Jiayi, President of AIIB in the presence of Hussain bin Ibrahim Al Hammadi, UAE Ambassador to China

DXB set for summer surge with over 3.4mn guests expected in season kick-off

DUBAI / WAM

Dubai International (DXB) is entering a period of sustained peak operations, with more than 3.4 million guests expected to travel through the airport between 27th June and 9th July 2025.

Daily volumes are forecast to average over 265,000 with the busiest day on 5 July for both departures and transfer traffic. Dubai Airports, alongside its stakeholders, has activated an integrated summer readiness plan to ensure guest journeys remain safe and efficient.

While the wider regional situation has led to some delays and cancellations across the network, the oneDXB community has been working around the clock to support guests, provide welfare, and maintain service continuity.

UAE reaffirms commitment to principled humanitarian action at ECOSOC Humanitarian Affairs Segment

GENEVA / WAM

The United Arab Emirates (UAE) reaffirmed its unwavering commitment to principled humanitarian action during the 2025 ECOSOC Humanitarian Affairs Segment (HAS), which was held at the Palais des Nations in Geneva.

Jamal Jama Al Musharakh, UAE's Permanent Representative to the United Nations and other International Organisations in Geneva, emphasised the importance of upholding the core humanitarian principles of neutrality, impartiality, and independence.

He called for a fundamental shift in the humanitarian system from reactive responses to anticipatory action, and stressed the need for "greater investment in early warning systems and anticipatory financing, particularly for climate-related crises".

Al Musharakh also underscored the critical importance of protecting civilians in conflict zones and ensuring unimpeded humanitarian access, with a specific reference to the situation in Gaza.

He said, "We strongly condemn Israel's continued violations and underline the need to support efforts and endeavors to ensure the immediate, safe, unhindered, and sustainable delivery of aid on a wide scale, through all possible means."

Al Musharakh also participated in a high-level panel titled 'Reimagining the Humanitarian System: Innovative Models to Save Lives, Reduce Suffering, and Promote People's Resilience and Livelihoods'. The panel featured the participation of representatives from key international organisations, including Tom Fletcher, Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Coordinator at OCHA, and representatives from UNHCR, UNDRR, FAO, WFP, UNICEF, Women for Change South Sudan, and The International Council of Voluntary Agencies (ICVA).

In his remarks, Al Musharakh stressed the importance of innovation in humanitarian response. "Innovation is no longer optional — it is essential," he stated, calling for improved delivery mechanisms of humanitarian aid aligning with the needs of the impacted populations.

THE NEW ADFD project aligns with the UAE Energy Strategy 2050

ADFD, GCCIA sign AED752m pact to expand GCC power grid with UAE

The agreement aims to boost regional energy security and catalyse power exchange between the UAE and other GCC member state

ABU DHABI / WAM

Abu Dhabi Fund for Development (ADFD) has signed a financing agreement with the Gulf Cooperation Council Interconnection Authority (GCCIA) to support the expansion of the GCC power grid interconnection with the UAE's national grid.

Valued at AED752 million (US$205 million), the agreement aims to strengthen regional energy security and catalyse power exchange between the UAE and other GCC member states.

The agreement was signed at ADFD headquarters in Abu Dhabi by Mohammed Saif Al Suwaidi, Director-General of ADFD, and Eng Ahmed Ali Al Ebrahim, CEO of the GCCIA.

The signing was also attended by Eng Sharif Salim Al Olama, Undersecretary of UAE Ministry of Energy and Infrastructure and Board Member of the GCCIA; Dr Saif Saeed Al Qubaisi, Acting Director-General of Regulatory Affairs at Abu Dhabi Department of Energy and Board Member of GCCIA, alongside other senior officials from both parties.

The project aims to strengthen the interconnectivity between the UAE and GCC power grid, enhancing regional energy resilience and enabling broader economic and developmental integration. It also aligns with the UAE Energy Strategy 2050, which aims to establish an energy system that is efficient and sustainable, contributing to long-term national economic growth.

Designed as a strategic infrastructure upgrade, the project will reinforce the GCCIA grid and significantly expand electricity transmission capacity with the UAE. Based on detailed technical and economic feasibility studies, the initiative aligns with the GCCIA's forward-looking vision to deliver a reliable and durable regional power infrastructure.

The project aims to strengthen the interconnectivity between the UAE and GCC power grid, enhancing regional energy resilience and enabling broader economic and developmental integration

The project includes the construction of a 400kV double-circuit overhead transmission line extending 96 kilometres to connect the Al Silaa substation in the UAE with the Salwa substation in Saudi Arabia.

It also involves the expansion of three key substations in Gonan, Al Silaa, and Salwa, and the installation of upgraded 400kV switchgears, circuit breakers and reactors. The project will also oversee the development of advanced protection and control systems, improving grid efficiency and reliability.

Al Suwaidi said, "The project reflects ADFD's commitment to financing high-impact infrastructure that supports the UAE's development priorities."

UAE to chair UNDRR Support Group for 2025–2026 term

GENEVA / WAM

The United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNDRR) Support Group unanimously endorsed the appointment of Ambassador Jamal Jama Al Musharakh, UAE's Permanent Representative to the United Nations and other international organisations in Geneva, as Chair of the Support Group for the 2025–2026 term, as of August 2025.

The UAE will assume the Chairmanship from the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, which currently holds the position for the 2024–2025 term. This appointment marks a significant milestone, as the UAE becomes the first Arab country to assume this role. The UAE's leadership reflects the country's strong commitment to multilateralism, sustainable development, and proactive engagement in tackling the rising risks posed by climate change and disasters.

Addressing the group during the meeting, Al Musharakh stated, "The UAE is fully committed to leveraging its leadership of the UNDRR Support Group to drive forward practical, long-term disaster risk reduction strategies. The UAE's priority will be to enhance international cooperation, ensuring that disaster resilience becomes integrated into every aspect of development."

Emirates Global Aluminium begins production with smart smelting tech

ABU DHABI / WAM

Emirates Global Aluminium (EGA) on Thursday announced start of hot metal production at pilot reduction cells for EX, the company's next generation aluminium smelting technology.

The pilot at Al Taweelah is a key step in readying the technology for large-scale industrialisation, making the project a key foundation for both future low-carbon primary aluminium production growth at EGA and the strengthening of EGA's position as the smelting technology provider of choice for the global aluminium industry.

EGA's next generation technology is expected to reduce greenhouse gas emissions per tonne of aluminium produced by around five per cent for the more productive variant and around 12 percent for the lower energy variant —WAM

The pilot will also be used to prove the most advanced Industry 4.0 capabilities in the aluminium industry. All EGA's existing Industry 4.0 use case will be deployed in the new technology and the company is developing new state-of-the-art digital capabilities centred on artificial intelligence and advanced data analytics.

“First hot metal from these EX Technology reduction cells is a key milestone for both our technology leadership and future growth at EGA. Our goal is to expand our primary aluminium production with the most advanced and smart aluminium smelting technology, to build the smelter of the future and to create further value for EGA through smelting technology partnerships around the world

Abdulnasser Bin Kalban, Chief Executive Officer of Emirates Global Aluminium

Abdulnasser Bin Kalban, Chief Executive Officer of

MoHAP launches clinical guideline for weight management, prevention of adulthood obesity

DUBAI / WAM

The Ministry of Health and Prevention (MoHAP) has launched the National Clinical Guideline for Weight Management and Prevention of Adulthood Obesity, a comprehensive strategic framework designed to promote public health, and reduce the prevalence of chronic diseases, as well as contributing to building a healthier society.

The new guideline will not only play a key role in forging a healthier future for the UAE but will also help shape a healthcare system that responds to community needs and supports the Ministry's long-term goal of building a culture where prevention and well-being come first.

The Ministry stressed that tackling obesity is among its top priorities, due to its correlation with serious health conditions such as diabetes, heart disease, and hypertension.

Developed by a multidisciplinary team of local experts in public health, nutrition, endocrinology, and surgery, and reviewed by an international consultant, the guide incorporates the latest global research and best practices.
