UAE President shares empowering message for International Youth Day

ABU DHABI / GULF TIME

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan took to the social media platform X to extend his message on the occasion of International Youth Day, which is celebrated all over the world on August 12 every year. His Highness Sheikh Mohamed said, "On International Youth Day, we celebrate the ambition and achievements of youth in fostering a better future for all.

Recognising their important role in our nation's continued advancement, the UAE remains committed to empowering youth to serve as leaders in their communities and contribute to our collective progress."

The services segment continues to extend ADNOC L&S's diversified business model

ADNOC L&S Q2 revenue up 40% year-on-year to $1,258 million

In the first half of 2025, ADNOC Logistics and Services plc's revenue was $2,439 million (AED8,957 million), a 40 percent YoY increase

ABU DHABI / WAM

ADNOC Logistics and Services plc (ADNOC L&S) on Tuesday reported record-breaking second-quarter (Q2) and first-half (H1) results for 2025, surpassing market expectations and demonstrating resilience and operational strength in a volatile market.

ADNOC L&S's Q2 revenue increased by 40 percent year-on-year (YoY) to US$1,258 million (AED4,618 million) with EBITDA growing 31 percent YoY to $400 million (AED1,470 million).

Net profit for the quarter grew 14 percent YoY to $236 million (AED866 million).

In H1 2025, the company's revenue was $2,439 million (AED8,957 million), a 40 percent YoY increase. EBITDA rose by 26 percent YoY to $744 million (AED2,732 million), driven by robust performance across all business segments, sustaining EBITDA margin at 30 percent. Net profit for H1 2025 was $420 million (AED1,544 million), up 5 percent YoY, and up 18 percent compared to H2 2024.

ADNOC L&S's diverse and resilient business model enabled the company to deliver strong net profit and operating cash flow despite challenging shipping charter rate environments in Gas, Tankers, and Dry Bulk.

The company continues to enhance value and streamline operations across its diverse asset portfolio, while advancing integration and innovation through its shipping and logistics subsidiaries, Navig8 and Zakher Marine International (ZMI).

Captain Abdulkareem Al Masabi, CEO of ADNOC L&S, said, "We are proud to report our highest-ever quarterly results, underscoring the strength of our growth strategy and our ability to capitalise on diversified opportunities across our Integrated Logistics, Shipping and Services segments."

He added that this record-breaking performance reflects ADNOC L&S's continued outperformance of market expectations, driven by robust cash flows, strategic partnerships, and operational excellence.

Al Masabi said the integrated logistics segment delivered a solid performance, with revenues rising 22 percent YoY to $1,293 million (AED4,748 million), reflecting strong demand and strategic growth in key areas. As a result, EBITDA rose by 27 percent YoY to $420 million (AED1,542 million), highlighting the segment's significant contribution to the company's overall results.

UAE, Finland sign pact to strengthen cooperation in meteorology, polar research

ABU DHABI / WAM

Dr Abdulla Al Mandous, Director-General of the National Centre of Meteorology (NCM) and President of the World Meteorological Organisation (WMO), and Professor Petteri Taalas, Director-General of the Finnish Meteorological Institute (FMI), have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to strengthen cooperation in meteorology and polar research.

The signing took place during an official visit by an NCM delegation to Helsinki, the capital of Finland, marking a significant step forward in enhancing bilateral cooperation in meteorology, polar research, and the development of joint scientific initiatives, as part of the growing strategic partnership between the two countries.

The MoU aims to solidify institutional collaboration between both sides in scientific and operational meteorological initiatives, with a focus on exchanging expertise and best practices, particularly in polar research, which is a key priority on the UAE's scientific agenda.

It also aligns with the UAE's vision through the Emirates Polar Programme, which seeks to establish Emirates Research Labs in both the Arctic and Antarctica,

MoHAP bolsters partnership for national newborn screening programme

The efforts are supported by 'Riayati,' digital healthcare platform for NUMR programme featuring an integrated database

DUBAI / WAM

The Ministry of Health and Prevention (MoHAP) held a coordination meeting with representatives from private hospitals to discuss ways to improve the national newborn screening programme and ensure its alignment with the UAE's approved national standards in accordance with federal health legislation. The meeting was held as part of the Ministry's commitment to promoting proactive healthcare and achieving the highest standards of quality in preventive health services.

These measures are implemented in line with the Cabinet Resolution on newborn medical screening and the directives issued by the Health Regulation Sector, which define the procedures, standards, and regulatory framework for newborn examinations.

They include ongoing monitoring and validation of tests to ensure accuracy, alongside comprehensive clinical and biochemical assessments. The meeting aimed to support MoHAP's ongoing efforts to standardise regulatory and technical procedures for newborn screenings, ensuring the highest levels of accuracy and efficiency in early detection of genetic disorders, hereditary diseases, and other conditions.

The meeting addressed several strategic themes, including a detailed review of the UAE Cabinet Resolution concerning newborn medical screening —WAM

EMSTEEL becomes 1st Mena firm to earn ResponsibleSteel certification

The ResponsibleSteel certification was awarded following an extensive audit conducted by CARES, an internationally recognised certification body

ABU DHABI / WAM

EMSTEEL, one of the largest publicly traded steel and building materials manufacturers in the region, announced today its steel business unit (Emirates Steel Industries, part of EMSTEEL Group) has officially become the first company in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region to receive ResponsibleSteel™ Core Site certification.

The ResponsibleSteel certification was awarded following an extensive audit conducted by CARES, an internationally recognised certification body. The assessment rigorously evaluated Emirates Steel Industries part of EMSTEEL Group’s performance, against a comprehensive set of environmental, social, and governance (ESG) criteria, reflecting the highest standards of ethical business conduct and environmental responsibility.

This certification follows another major recognition, as EMSTEEL was recently named a 2025 Steel Sustainability Champion by the World Steel Association (worldsteel), becoming the only company in the MENA region to earn this prestigious distinction for the second consecutive year.

Together, these accolades reflect EMSTEEL’s consistent leadership and concrete action in advancing sustainable steel practices.

UAE’s summer initiatives highlight strong commitment

ABU DHABI / WAM

The UAE is witnessing a surge in humanitarian initiatives this summer aimed at protecting outdoor workers from heat stress, reflecting the strong commitment of Emirati society, both individuals and institutions, to workers’ safety, welfare and rights.

Initiatives range from providing air-conditioned shelters, cold drinks, ice cream and full meals, to distributing sunglasses, sunscreen and running awareness campaigns on the dangers of heat exhaustion.

The programmes, run by both government and non-government organisations, underscore the UAE’s ethical values and its success in making worker protection a deeply rooted social culture.

The Ministry of Human Resources and Emiratisation (MOHRE) said more than 10,000 air-conditioned rest areas equipped with amenities have been set up across the country for delivery workers during the midday work ban from 15th June to 15th September each year, in cooperation with relevant government bodies and the private sector.

The General Women’s Union continues its “Suqia, Fatima bint Mubarak,” initiative running through July, August and September, providing water, juices, dates, umbrellas and other heat protection to thousands of workers in Abu Dhabi.

Abu Dhabi Police launched an initiative at construction sites in Al Ain, in cooperation with First Abu Dhabi Bank, distributing water, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Supported by the Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Global Initiatives (MBRGI), Ferjan Dubai, in collaboration with the UAE Water Aid Foundation (Suqia) and the UAE Food Bank, has distributed 2 million bottles of cold water, juices, and frozen treats to workers across Dubai to help alleviate the effects of summer heat and reinforce the values of solidarity and compassion among community members.

The campaign, which targets cleaning and construction workers, delivery

Head of Cyber Security lays foundation for Safety and Security Building in Maldives

The new building will be a vital hub of sovereign infrastructure in the Maldives. It will house an advanced data centre and the Maldives Police Service Cyber Security Operations Centre, along with platforms powered by AI, big data analytics and data science

MALÉ / WAM

Dr Mohamed Al Kuwaiti, Head of Cyber Security for the UAE Government, joined the UAE delegation on an official visit to the Maldives and laid the foundation for the new Safety and Security Building in the capital, Malé.

Attending were Ali Ihusaan, Minister of Homeland Security and Technology, Ismail Naveen, Commissioner of Police, Maldives Police Service, and representatives of the UAE company Presight, which is implementing the project. This step reflects the UAE leadership’s directives and further strengthens relations between the United Arab Emirates and the Republic of the Maldives.

The new building will be a vital hub of sovereign infrastructure in the Maldives. It will house an advanced data centre and the Maldives Police Service Cyber Security Operations Centre, along with platforms powered by AI, big data analytics and data science. These capabilities will strengthen monitoring and response to security threats, support data-driven decision-making, and enhance proactive protection and operational planning.

Presight will deliver the project to international standards, providing integrated technical infrastructure to safeguard sovereign data and improve operational efficiency, bolstering the Maldives’ adoption of advanced digital security solutions in collaboration with allied nations.

During the visit, Dr. Al Kuwaiti also inaugurated the Maldives Police Service Cyber Security Operations Centre, which aims to boost monitoring, detection and analysis capabilities and raise readiness to address cyber threats.

Aldar launches third residential project ‘Fahid Beach Terraces’

The 501-unit development comprises a diverse range of luxury residences, including one- to four-bedroom apartments

ABU DHABI / WAM

Aldar on Tuesday announced the launch of Fahid Beach Terraces, a six building residential community set on shoreline on Fahid Island in Abu Dhabi.

The new development features amenities that enhance residents’ well-being and meet all their needs, such as wellness complexes, fitness studios, and other facilities for active lifestyles.

The 501-unit development comprises a diverse range of luxury residences, including one- to four-bedroom apartments, duplexes, and collection of six exclusive five-bedroom penthouses.

Fahid Beach Terraces is designed to reflect the broader sustainability vision of Fahid Island — the world’s first Fitwel-certified island — where design excellence, innovation, and Aldar’s commitment to purposeful development come together. The residential buildings are targeting Fitwel 2-star rating, Estidama 3 Pearl for buildings, and LEED Gold.

Fahid Beach Terraces is open to buyers of all nationalities and will be available for sale from 27th August 2025.
