UAE President reaffirms ‘shared values’ for ‘Year of Family’

ABU DHABI / GULF TIME

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan took to the social media platform X to reaffirm the country’s steadfast commitment to strengthening family bonds on Sunday. His Highness Sheikh Mohamed wrote: “With the launch of the Year of Family in the UAE, we reaffirm our steadfast commitment to strengthening family bonds and shared values while advancing social cohesion as a source of national growth. Working in partnership with families and the broader community, the UAE is determined to continue investing in efforts to achieve lasting progress and development for all those who call the UAE home.”

THE WORLD Economic Forum 2026 will take place in Davos, Switzerland, from January 19-23

UAE participates in World Economic Forum 2026

The delegation includes 100 ministers, government officials, and leaders from private sector firms, continuing nation’s engagement in the forum

DUBAI / WAM

The United Arab Emirates is participating in the 56th Annual Meeting of the World Economic Forum 2026, taking place in Davos, Switzerland from 19th to 23rd January, with a high-level delegation led by HH Sheikh Latifa bint Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Chairperson of Dubai Culture and Arts Authority.

The delegation includes more than 100 ministers, senior government officials, and leaders from major private sector companies, continuing the UAE’s active and consistent engagement in this global forum, which serves as an annual platform for advancing international cooperation across key development sectors, particularly those related to the global economy.

The UAE’s presence at Davos 2026 reflects its role as a key global partner, actively shaping international cooperation frameworks and supporting the transition toward inclusive, long-term sustainable development. It also aligns with the directives of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai, to prioritise economic development within the work of the UAE Government and to continue enhancing the country’s global competitiveness across all sectors, particularly those supporting the national economy, while promoting knowledge exchange and strengthening international partnerships.

Mohammad bin Abdullah Al Gergawi, Minister of Cabinet Affairs said, “The UAE’s participation in the World Economic Forum Davos 2026 reflects its vision to reinforce the UAE’s active presence and constructive contribution across international forums, strengthen international cooperation, and deepen effective regional and global partnerships. This engagement supports the achievement of national development objectives and contributes to international efforts to address shared challenges and advance comprehensive and sustainable development.”

Al Gergawi added, “The UAE delegation to Davos 2026, led by H.H. Sheikh Latifa bint Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, includes more than 100 senior government officials, entrepreneurs, and innovators from a wide range of sectors. As the fifth largest delegation at the Forum, it reflects the UAE’s continued focus on economc priorities and future oriented sectors, particularly artificial intelligence, technological innovation, digital transformation, and enhanced collaboration between government and the private sector.”

He noted that the UAE remains committed to strengthening constructive international cooperation, sharing its expertise in areas where it has established global leadership, and benefiting from international best practices through mutual partnerships.

This approach supports national development goals, contributes to addressing global challenges, and enhances opportunities for sustainable and inclusive growth worldwide.

Al Gergawi affirmed that the UAE’s participation in Davos 2026 represents an important opportunity to build and strengthen effective partnerships, advance constructive dialogue, and expand international cooperation with governments, international institutions, major companies, and the private sector, while working collectively to promote stability, prosperity, and sustainable development for present and future generations.

The theme of the World Economic Forum 2026, “Spirit of Dialogue”, aligns closely with the UAE’s long-standing commitment to dialogue as a foundation for international relations, multilateral cooperation, and social cohesion.

This principle is reflected both in the UAE’s active engagement with global institutions and in its diverse society, which brings together more than 200 nationalities in a model of coexistence and mutual respect. The UAE’s participation in the Forum highlights its emphasis on fostering inclusive and forward-looking dialogue that supports joint action, strengthens cooperation, and addresses shared global challenges.

The UAE’s engagement focuses on advancing sustainable economic growth, accelerating technological innovation, and reinforcing international cooperation to address key global priorities such as climate change and digital transformation.

UAE signs cooperation agreement with IFRC to support humanitarian efforts in Sudan

According to the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), the UAE ranks second globally after the United States in terms of aid provided to Sudan since the start of the conflict —WAM

ABU DHABI / WAM

The United Arab Emirates has signed a cooperation agreement with the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) to support urgent humanitarian efforts in Sudan, allocating US$11 million as part of the US$100 million pledged by the UAE during the United Nations Security Council meeting in October.

The agreement was signed by Dr. Tareq Ahmed Al Ameri, Chairman of the UAE Aid Agency, and Jagan Chapagain, Secretary-General of the IFRC. The funding aims to strengthen the humanitarian response to the ongoing crisis in Sudan and support communities affected by the conflict.

Under the agreement, US$10 million will be directed toward supporting host communities accommodating Sudanese refugees in Chad, South Sudan, Uganda, and Ethiopia, while US$1 million will be allocated to the IFRC's Disaster Response Emergency Fund (DREF) to enhance rapid and effective emergency response.

Dr. Tareq Ahmed Al Ameri reaffirmed the UAE's commitment to its international and moral responsibilities toward people affected by disasters, crises, and conflicts worldwide.

He emphasised the UAE's continued support for joint international humanitarian efforts and its close cooperation with global partners to ensure the delivery of essential aid and basic services, particularly to vulnerable groups such as children, women, and the elderly.

THE UAE economy is experiencing accelerated growth, driven by the strong performance of non-oil sectors

UAQ performance highlights UAE's economic resilience

The emirate stands as an example of the progress of the UAE economy, continuing to consolidate its position as one of the country's most promising economic environments

UMM AL QAIWAIN / WAM

The UAE economy is experiencing accelerated growth, driven by the strong performance of non-oil sectors, high-quality foreign and local investments, flexible economic legislation and labour market incentives, in addition to the stability and security enjoyed by the country.

Umm Al Qaiwain stands as a clear example of the progress and development of the UAE economy, continuing to consolidate its position as one of the country's most promising economic environments.

Ahmed Obaid Ibrahim Al Ali, Director-General of the Umm Al Qaiwain Chamber of Commerce and Industry, told Emirates News Agency (WAM) that the emirate is experiencing positive momentum in economic activity and the business environment, alongside diversified economic activities and a stimulating investment climate. This, he said, reflects the resilience of the local economy and the readiness of the business environment to support various sectors.

He explained that the chamber's statistics for 2025 showed a 23.4 percent increase in total memberships, indicating growing confidence among the business community and increased demand for establishing and operating economic activities in the emirate.

He noted that this growth spanned the main economic sectors, with the commercial sector recording a 31 percent increase, the professional sector 23.3 per-
