DUBAI / WAM

His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President, Prime Minister, and Ruler of Dubai, has approved multiple decisions during the Cabinet meeting, and reviewed the preparations for the 5th Make it in the Emirates platform.

Decisions include establishing a National Industrial Resilience Fund with a capital of AED1 billion to support the localisation of critical industries and strengthen supply chain resilience in the UAE.

HH Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum said,

Mohammed bin Rashid approves decisions to enhance industrial resilience, support national products

The Cabinet approved a policy to strengthen the presence of national products across retail outlets and digital platforms

"Today, we took decisions to accelerate the UAE's industrial growth... We are launching an AED 1 billion fund to strengthen resilience, expand local production, secure supply chains, and scale the use of artificial intelligence across production and operations."

He added, "We made the National In-Country Value Programme mandatory across all government entities and national companies, and strengthened the presence of UAE-made products. Our target is clear: Fully localise more than 5,000 critical products...

We reviewed preparations for "Make it in the Emirates 2026" in Abu Dhabi next month, bringing together global investors and industry leaders."

The fund will support the localisation of critical industries, strengthen supply chains, and further increase the country's self-sufficiency. It will enhance industrial readiness for vital products, ensure continuity of supply, and strengthen economic security, while leveraging artificial intelligence in forecasting and risk management. It will also support the expansion of local manufacturing, the development of strategic reserves, and the advancement of industrial value chains across priority sectors.

Fund resources will be allocated in line with national priorities, including food security and key industrial sectors such as manufacturing, primary metals, mechanical, electrical and chemical industries, pharmaceuticals and active pharmaceutical ingredients, medical supplies, advanced technology, and construction.

The Cabinet approved amendments to the National In-Country Value Programme, transitioning it from an incentive-based framework to a mandatory model across selected sectors, including federal entities and companies in which the government holds 25% or more.

The decision directs government and institutional demand towards priority national products, strengthens supply continuity, enhances supply chain readiness, and supports self-sufficiency, positioning government spending as a tool to localise critical industries and strengthen national industrial security.

The Cabinet approved a policy to strengthen the presence of national products across retail outlets and digital platforms. It aims to increase the visibility of UAE-manufactured products, raise consumer awareness, enable integration into major supply chains, and support market stability and continuity of supply.

The first phase will focus on essential products with scalable local production, including bottled water, dairy products, eggs, fresh and chilled poultry, bread, flour, locally packaged vegetable oils, and seasonal vegetables. Implementation will be coordinated with relevant entities, private sector partners, retailers, and digital platforms, with dedicated space allocated to Made-in-UAE products in line with defined standards.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF GENERAL INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA DUBAI BRANCH, DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

Report on Audit of Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of General Insurance Corporation of India Dubai Branch (the "Branch") which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2025 and the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity, statement of cash flows for the period then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Branch as at December 31, 2025 and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Branch in accordance with the requirements of Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, issued by International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA) together with ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

The Report have been prepared taking into consideration the run-off status of the Branch from July 2021 and the filing of application with CBUAE for portfolio transfer to GIC Re Giff City Branch.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
As at 31st December 2025, the Company's insurance contract liabilities and reinsurance contract assets are valued at AED 606.95 million and AED 4.40 million respectively as disclosed in Note 8 to the financial statements.	Our audit procedures included, inter alia, the following: Obtaining an understanding of the process adopted by management for the valuation of insurance contract liabilities and reinsurance contract assets. This included evaluating the design and implementation of relevant internal controls governing these processes. Performed the procedures to assess the integrity of the underlying data used in the actuarial models, including testing, on a sample basis, the completeness and accuracy of data inputs used in projecting future cash flows. Critically assessed the actuarial methodologies applied and the key assumptions adopted by management. This included evaluating the determination of risk adjustment, reviewing discount rates applied, and considering the appropriateness of expense assumptions included within fulfillment cash flows. Independently reformed the calculation to assess the mathematical accuracy of the insurance contract liabilities and reinsurance contract assets on selected classes of business particularly focusing on largest and most uncertain reserves. Evaluated the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the management's appointed actuary. Evaluated and tested the calculation of the allowance for expected credit loss including the data, key assumptions and judgments used; and Assessed the adequacy of disclosures included in financial statements against the requirements of IFRS Accounting Standards.

Other information

The Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Manager's report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, in compliance with the provisions of the applicable law and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Branch's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Branch or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Branch's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Branch's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Branch to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
