Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed attends Abu Dhabi Infrastructure Summit

ABU DHABI / WAM

HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Chairman of the Abu Dhabi Executive Council, has attended the second Abu Dhabi Infrastructure Summit (ADIS), hosted by the Abu Dhabi Projects and Infrastructure Centre (ADPIC) at ADNEC Centre Abu Dhabi, under the theme Urban Evolution: Rethinking Cities, Redefining How We Live.

During the visit, HH toured the accompanying exhibition, visiting the stands and pavilions of several participating entities to review the latest advanced solutions in the smart infrastructure sector. The event featured more than 75 exhibitors showcasing pioneering technologies in smart city planning and the development of modern, sustainable infrastructure and facilities that contribute to enhancing quality of life by addressing community needs and future aspirations.

HH underscored that investing in cutting-edge and sustainable infrastructure reflects Abu Dhabi's long-term vision to build efficient, resilient cities, supporting economic growth, enhancing quality of life and adapting to global shifts and future needs.

The Abu Dhabi Infrastructure Summit featured conferences and panel discussions bringing together more than 100 speakers and 250 government officials with more than 7,000 industry leaders, including chief executive officers of leading local and international companies as well as experts and specialists across key sectors linked to the infrastructure ecosystem.

Masdar, RWE receive planning permission for 3GW Dogger Bank South offshore wind farm projects

ABU DHABI / WAM

Abu Dhabi Future Energy Company PJSC — Masdar — and Global clean power leaders RWE welcomed the decision made by Lord Whitehead on behalf of the UK Energy Secretary's legal authority to approve the Development Consent Order for the two Dogger Bank South (DBS) offshore wind farms.

The proposed wind farms, DBS West and DBS East, are expected to have a combined installed capacity of 3 gigawatts (GW) and would be capable of producing enough electricity to power the equivalent of approximately three million UK homes annually.

The wind farms are set to be located over 100km off the

FAB provides $100 million financing facility to Arada

First Abu Dhabi Bank's financing agreement has been structured to align with the company's internal targets to achieve local impact

SHARJAH / WAM

Arada has signed its first sustainability-linked financing, a $100 million facility that has been agreed with First Abu Dhabi Bank and guaranteed by Italy's export credit agency SACE. The financing agreement has been structured to align with Arada's internal targets to achieve local impact and underscores the master developer's commitment to pursuing green investment and sustainable construction practices.

The five-year Islamic financing facility will be used for general corporate purposes and to support development at Arada's projects.

Ahmed Alkhashabi, Group CEO of Arada, said that this new financing underlines Arada's strength in diversifying funding sources while reinforcing its determination to work harder to meet sustainability goals.

"I'm pleased to see that our vision has been supported by our valued partners at FAB and SACE, and that the agreement strengthens our existing partnerships with Italian companies, contributes to Italy's economic growth and additionally enhances trade between the UAE and Italy," he added.

The financing has been linked to Arada's Sustainability Performance Targets (SPTs), which will be measured on an annual basis through the tenure of the facility

"I'm pleased to see that our vision has been supported by our valued partners at FAB and SACE, and that the agreement strengthens our existing partnerships with Italian companies, contributes to Italy's economic growth and additionally enhances trade between the UAE and Italy"

Ahmed Alkhashabi, Group CEO of Arada

Ciro Aquino, SACE Regional Manager Middle East and Head of Dubai Office, said, "We are proud to stand alongside Arada, a leading player with a strong vision and strategic projects capable of opening up new opportunities for Italian companies in the UAE. By supporting this Shariah-compliant sustainability-linked facility, SACE reaffirms its commitment to being close to Italian businesses operating in the region, even in a complex and evolving global environment."

He added that this transaction reflects SACE's ambition to continue enabling sustainable growth, fostering new business opportunities for Italian excellence and supporting companies as they navigate international markets, while further consolidating the economic ties between Italy and the UAE.
