Middle East Energy celebrates landmark 50th year at DWTC

ABU DHABI / WAM

Middle East Energy returns to the Dubai World Trade Centre on 1 – 3 September 2026, marking its historic 50th year since it staged its inaugural event in 1976. This milestone further reinforces Middle East Energy's position as the event where the global energy industry comes to do business.

This year's event comes at a pivotal moment, as energy demand accelerates across the region, driven by electrification, industrial expansion and the rapid scaling of AI and data centre infrastructure. For five decades, Middle East Energy has served as a central meeting point for organisations involved in financing, building and regulating the region's power infrastructure.

Etihad, TAROM open new links across Eastern Europe

The codeshare between the carriers extends to 4 Eastern European capitals: Belgrade, Budapest, Chisinau, and Sofia

ABU DHABI / WAM

Etihad Airways and TAROM, the national airline of Romania, have signed a codeshare agreement that connects Etihad's global guests with Romania and Eastern Europe, and links travellers from Romania to Abu Dhabi.

The agreement was signed at the IATA Annual General Meeting in Rio de Janeiro.

Under the partnership, Etihad guests can book a single ticket on TAROM flights from Bucharest to six cities across Romania: Baia Mare, Cluj-Napoca, Iasi, Oradea, Suceava, and Timisoara. The codeshare also extends to four Eastern European capitals: Belgrade, Budapest, Chisinau, and Sofia. Guests from Romania, in turn, can reach Abu Dhabi from Bucharest on Etihad's new service.

The codeshare supports the launch of Etihad's new Abu Dhabi-Bucharest service on 17th December 2026. Once the new service begins, guests can travel on a single ticket between Bucharest and destinations across Etihad's network, with bags checked through to the final stop.
