AD Ports Group, Dajin Heavy Industry sign pact to explore opportunities

The collaboration builds on a series of strategic initiatives and partnerships announced by AD Ports in the renewable energy and offshore sectors

ABU DHABI / WAM

AD Ports Group has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Dajin Heavy Industry Co., Ltd. a leading offshore wind equipment manufacturer to explore long-term cooperation across offshore wind supply chain development, maritime logistics, port infrastructure, and strategic vessel investments.

The collaboration builds on a series of strategic initiatives and partnerships announced by AD Ports Group in the renewable energy and offshore sectors, including recent agreements with Masdar, Siemens Energy, and Green Parrot, as well as the acquisition of Balenciaga Astilleros Shipyard in Spain, a specialist in offshore wind construction, all of which are building the Group's offshore energy capabilities.

The MoU reflects the shared ambition of both parties to combine their complementary strengths in order to accelerate growth within the offshore wind and energy infrastructure markets in Europe and other regions.

Under the framework of the

GREENLINK operates a 504MW subsea electricity interconnector linking Great Britain with Ireland

Mubadala partners with Equitix to invest in Greenlink

The investment reflects the firm's continued focus on infrastructure assets that support more connected, efficient, resilient power systems

ABU DHABI / WAM

Mubadala Investment Company (Mubadala) has acquired $200m of Equitix's stake in Greenlink, a joint venture between Equitix and Baltic Cable which operates a 504MW subsea electricity interconnector linking Great Britain with Ireland. This investment reflects Mubadala's continued focus on infrastructure assets that support more connected, efficient, and resilient power systems.

Greenlink is a high-voltage subsea interconnector spanning approximately 190km between Ireland and Great Britain. Regulated by Ofgem and CRU, the asset utilises high-voltage direct current (HVDC) technology, which is efficient for long-distance power transmission, and has a nominal capacity equivalent to powering around 380,000 homes.

It plays a critical role in supporting the integration of renewable energy, enhancing system flexibility, and facilitating cross-border electricity flows while strengthening security of supply, improving market efficiency and reinforcing connectivity with the wider European energy market.

Greenlink has been designated as a Project of Common Interest by the European Union, reflecting its importance to regional energy security and a more integrated European power market.

The investment further expands Mubadala's presence in European energy infrastructure and underscores its partnership-led approach to investing in assets that support more efficient and sustainable energy systems globally —WAM

The investment is underpinned by a well-established regulatory framework, providing long-term visibility on revenues and reinforcing the asset's role as essential infrastructure within both markets. By addressing evolving supply and demand dynamics across the Irish and UK power markets, Greenlink is positioned at the intersection of the energy transition and infrastructure modernisation, aligning with Mubadala's strategy of investing in assets linked to global megatrends and partnering with leading platforms.

Karim El Jazzer, Head of Europe and MENA, Infrastructure, Mubadala, said, "This investment reflects our continued focus on high-quality infrastructure assets that are integral to the functioning of modern economies, including those enabling more connected and efficient energy systems. Greenlink is a strong example of infrastructure that combines strategic relevance with a clear and sustainable economic value.

As power markets evolve, interconnectors are becoming increasingly important in supporting cross-border electricity flows and facilitating the integration of renewable energy and grid stability. Our partnership with Equitix delivers on this strategy by strengthening regional connectivity and supporting the energy transition across European markets."

Achal Bhuwania, CIO at Equitix, stated, "We are pleased to partner with Mubadala on this investment in Greenlink, which reflecting our shared focus on high-quality, strategically important infrastructure. Bringing together two investors with deep infrastructure expertise strengthens the platform and positions it well to support the evolving needs of interconnected power markets. Greenlink is a critical asset, enhancing energy resilience, enabling cross-border connectivity and supporting the transition to a lower-carbon energy system."

The investment further expands Mubadala's presence in European energy infrastructure and underscores its partnership-led approach to investing in assets that support more efficient and sustainable energy systems globally.

UAE continues support for Euphrates flood victims in Syria

DEIR EZZOR / WAM

UAE Aid Agency carried out an urgent relief assistance to support families affected by recent flooding of the Euphrates River in Syria, in line with the directives of President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and as part of the UAE's ongoing humanitarian response to support the brotherly Syrian people.

The move builds on a series of UAE humanitarian initiatives aimed at supporting flood-affected communities in Syria. Implemented in coordination with local authorities, it seeks to ease the impact of the disaster and evaluate recovery needs following extensive damage to residential areas, infrastructure and agricultural land.

Field teams from UAE Aid Agency conducted site visits and held meetings with residents and local authorities in the affected areas, gaining first-hand insight into the conditions and humanitarian needs of affected families. The efforts aim to ensure assistance reaches those most in need and delivers the greatest possible impact on the ground through assessing the scale of challenges facing affected communities, reinforcing the importance of rapid intervention to alleviate suffering and strengthen their ability to overcome the

DMCC plans to unveil unified platform to support trade

The move marks an expansion of DMCC's role beyond business infrastructure and company formation

DUBAI / WAM

DMCC has announced plans to launch DMCC Campus and DMCC Intelligence, two new platforms aimed at helping businesses, governments, and institutions respond to the forces reshaping global trade.

The move marks an expansion of DMCC's role beyond business infrastructure and company formation, reflecting growing demand for specialist expertise in areas such as trade strategy, technology adoption, economic development and workforce capability.

Drawing on more than two decades of experience as one of the world's leading trade hubs, the two platforms will form a unified knowledge platform, combining executive education, industry knowledge and advisory services under a single umbrella.

Ahmed Bin Sulayem, Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, DMCC, said, "For more than two decades, DMCC has helped position Dubai as a leading global centre for business, commodities and innovation. Throughout that journey, we have accumulated a unique combination of expertise, market intelligence, industry networks and practical experience. The launch of DMCC Campus and DMCC Intelligence represents the next phase of our evolution. Together, these platforms will enable us to Existing initiatives, including the DMCC Coffee Centre, DMCC Tea Centre, DGCX, the DMCC AI Centre and strategic academic partnerships, will form part of the broader knowledge platform.

DMCC Campus and DMCC Intelligence will be introduced through a phased rollout. The initial phase will focus on educational content, strategic advisory services and partnerships with leading companies, institutions and industry organisations across DMCC's global network.

PureHealth launches SAKINA for Children, delivering mental health services across Abu Dhabi

ABU DHABI /WAM

PureHealth announced the launch of SAKINA for Children, a dedicated network designed to deliver specialised mental health services for children and adolescents across Abu Dhabi.

The launch of SAKINA for Children represents a strategic expansion of SAKINA's mental health network, aimed at strengthening access to advanced, integrated mental healthcare services for children and adolescents up to 18 years of age. This initiative brings together outpatient services, early intervention programmes, and specialised inpatient care within a coordinated, child-centred model of care.

Whereas the Warner is (the owner) of the property located in the Emirate of Dubai - Area: (Business Bay) - Building Name (East Heights 4) - Flat No (1608) - Plot No (11-0) - DM No (346-391) - DEWA No. (345089065) - Makani No (25279-87198), rented to the Warnee (from the owner) under the lease contract for the period from 28/10/2024 to 27/10/2025, with a rental value of (AED 105,000) annually.

Whereas, the Warnee retained from paying the remaining of the rental value, so he owed an amount of (AED 78,750), for the rental period from 28/01/2025 to 27/10/2025.

Whereas the lease contract ended on 27/10/2025, but the Warnee did not renew the contract or pay the rental value, so he owed an amount of (AED 105,000), for the rental period from 28/10/2025 to 27/10/2026.

Whereas, the Warnee violated the rules and regulations pertaining to building management, thus exposing Warner to fines for overcrowding and disturbing the public view, so he owed an amount of (AED 16,800).

Whereas, the Warnee is still retained from paying the rental value despite occupying the property, therefore, the Warner directs this notice, demanding the Warnee to pay within thirty days from being announced with the notice or to vacate the property.

Whereas Article (25) of Law No. (33) Of 2008, Clause (1) Paragraph (A) states: The Landlord may demand eviction of tenant prior to expiry of tenancy period in any of the following cases:
