UAE President receives delegation from Abu Dhabi Investment Authority on its 50th anniversary

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan received a delegation from the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority (ADIA) as the authority marks the 50th anniversary of its establishment.

His Highness congratulated the delegation on the occasion and expressed his appreciation for their efforts to strengthen ADIA's position among the world's leading investment institutions. He also paid tribute to the pioneering generation that established the authority and to all those whose dedication and vision contributed to its growth and success over the past 50 years.

His Highness underscored ADIA's role in supporting the UAE's development vision, being one of the nation's key drivers of economic diversification and future-focused growth.

The meeting was attended by His Highness Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, UAE Vice President, Deputy Prime Minister, and Chairman of the Presidential Court; HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi; HH Sheikh Hamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, and several Sheikhs and officials.

DoH partners with Sanofi to advance vaccine innovation

It draws on Abu Dhabi's integrated vaccine innovation ecosystem spanning discovery, development, manufacturing, commercialisation

SAN DIEGO / WAM

The Department of Health – Abu Dhabi (DoH) and Sanofi, a worldwide biopharma and vaccines leader, have signed a Memorandum of Understanding to advance their partnership in vaccine innovation and to jointly explore the development of a Vaccine Innovation Centre in Abu Dhabi.

The collaboration will strengthen capabilities across AI-enabled vaccine discovery, mRNA research, clinical development and manufacturing, with the shared ambition of supporting regional and global preparedness for future public health challenges.

Operating within Abu Dhabi's Health, Endurance, Longevity, and Medicine (HELM) Cluster, the collaboration intends to bring together scientific research, clinical infrastructure, academic expertise, enabling regulation and advanced manufacturing within a single ecosystem.

The centre's capabilities will include AI-enabled vaccine discovery and design, immunology, clinical development, mRNA research and clinical manufacturing —WAM

Announced during BIO International Convention 2026 in San Diego, USA, the agreement builds on the strategic partnership established between DoH and Sanofi in 2025 and draws on Abu Dhabi's advanced integrated vaccine innovation ecosystem spanning discovery, development, manufacturing and commercialisation.

"Through our partnership with Sanofi, we are bringing together AI, scientific research, clinical expertise, advanced manufacturing and enabling regulation within a single ecosystem designed to accelerate the journey from discovery to impact," said Dr. Noura Khamis Al Ghaithi, Undersecretary of the DoH.

She added that this partnership reflects Abu Dhabi's commitment to creating an environment where innovators can build, test and scale

ADX welcomes GCC Shariah Dividend ETF, expanding region's most active ETF market

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX) Group today welcomed the listing of the Chimera Solactive GCC Shariah Dividend ETF (GCCDIV), marking the fourth listing of the year.

Developed by Abu Dhabi-based global investment manager Lunate, this first-of-its-kind exchange-traded fund tracks high-performing, income-generating, Shariah-compliant equities across the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC).

The listing marks the 24th ETF on the ADX, further cementing the exchange's position as the most active and liquid ETF hub in the Middle East. This launch is the latest milestone in opening access to the GCC's rapid economic expansion.

By offering a single, diversified, and transparent investment vehicle, the fund provides retail and institutional investors with borderless access to leading companies in the UAE, Saudi Arabia, and Qatar.

clean energy transformation. Siemens' comprehensive study, titled Powering Transformation: How a new generation of infrastructure assets is reshaping the Middle East, based on a survey of 400 senior executives and in-depth interviews with leaders and experts in the region, reveals a region aligned for impact, with 66 percent of executives stating that the global energy transition needs to accelerate significantly, compared with 57 percent globally.

Hakan Ozdemir, CEO of Siemens Smart Infrastructure in the Middle East and Siemens Qatar, said, "The 2026 Middle East Infrastructure Transition Monitor highlights a significant shift across the Middle East, as infrastructure evolves into a strategic driver of competitiveness, resilience, and sustainable growth."

He added, "As energy systems grow more complex and demand continues to rise, success will depend on the ability to connect data, intelligence, and physical infrastructure at scale."

According to the report, industrial AI is accelerating operational transformation, unlocking unprecedented efficiency, productivity, and sustainability across national systems.

A total of 62 percent of executives expect AI to reshape infrastructure operations within just three years. Readiness to embrace automation is equally notable, with 56 percent of organisations prepared to implement autonomous systems in buildings, and 57 percent planning significant investments in this area over the coming year.
