UAE leaders congratulate Acting President of Venezuela on Independence Day

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan has sent a message of congratulations to Delcy Rodríguez, Acting President of the Bolivarian

Republic of Venezuela, on the occasion of her country's Independence Day.

His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai, and His Highness Sheikh

Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice President, Deputy Prime Minister and Chairman of the Presidential Court, also sent similar congratulatory messages to Delcy Rodríguez, Acting President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

MOCCAЕ, FAO host 'Legislations of the Future' workshop in Dubai

It was part of ongoing efforts to strengthen an agile regulatory ecosystem that fosters innovation to drive UAE's food security, sustainability objectives

DUBAI / WAM

The Ministry of Climate Change and Environment (MOCCAЕ), in collaboration with the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), organised a workshop entitled "Legislations of the future" to advance innovation and sustainability in the agriculture and food safety sector. This was part of ongoing efforts to strengthen an agile, future-ready regulatory ecosystem that fosters innovation to drive the UAE's food security and sustainability objectives.

The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Mohammed Salman Al Hammadi, Assistant Under-Secretary for the Food Diversity Sector at MOCCAЕ, and brought together representatives from government entities, FAO, the private sector, academia, research institutions, and international experts specialising in agricultural and food policy and regulation.

In his opening remarks, Dr. Al Hammadi stressed that modernising regulatory frameworks is a key enabler for strengthening the UAE's food security ecosystem and ensuring that legislation keeps pace with rapid technological developments across the agriculture and food sectors. He said, "Guided by the UAE's visionary leadership, we remain committed to developing agile and forward-looking regulatory frameworks that keep pace with rapid transformation across the agriculture and enabling regulatory environment that encourages innovation, attracts investment, and empowers the private sector to contribute to the UAE's long-term food security ambitions.

Dr. Ahmed Mukhtar, Acting Head of the FAO Sub-Regional Office in the UAE, added, "Food security and forward-looking legislation are the foundation of a resilient agrifood system. The FAO office is proud to collaborate with the UAE Ministry of Climate Change and Environment in developing flexible regulatory frameworks that accommodate innovation in agriculture, food safety, and animal health, and in promoting international standards across the food value chain. This workshop reflects our shared commitment to ensuring access to safe and nutritious food for all, while advancing the UAE's vision for sustainable and resilient food systems."

The workshop featured a series of interactive sessions that discussed three main themes of sustainable food security. The sessions aimed to overcome legislative and environmental obstacles to facilitate the adoption of advanced agricultural technologies.

Participants discussed policies and regulatory frameworks that support agricultural technologies, livestock development, food safety, and natural resource management to make food supply chains more efficient and sustainable. Establishing a regulatory environment to meet future challenges was also one of the focus areas during the discussion.

The first session of the workshop focused on evaluating the use of water resources in traditional farming, increasing local production and minimising waste. The session discussed ways to enhance productivity and efficiency of food systems and approving new agritech.

Cultural Foundation launches Skin of Dreams exhibition

ABU DHABI / AD MEDIA OFFICE

Cultural Foundation, a cultural centre under the Department of Culture and Tourism - Abu Dhabi (DCT Abu Dhabi), has unveiled the Skin of Dreams exhibition, which presents a comprehensive look at Dawood's momentous artworks.

The landmark solo exhibition is the first mid-career retrospective by artist Shezad Dawood, running until 20 September 2026. The timely institutional retrospective, curated by Jessica Cerasi, brings together a selection of work spanning more than 15 years, showcasing the links between the different facets of the artist's practice.

The exhibition's title, Skin of Dreams, is a phrase used to describe the cinema screen, conjuring the boundary between imagination and reality. It invites visitors into the richly textured universe Dawood has been shaping for over two decades.

Subject / Notice to Refund an Amount of AED 3,734,436

The Notifier is of Indian nationality, an investor, and resides in the UAE. The Notified Party is of Commonwealth of Dominica nationality and resides in the UAE. On 27/07/2023, the Notifier purchased two residential units (Apartments), Nos. 708 and 1109, located in Fable Tower 12, constructed on Plot No. 149 and 1109 in Burj Khalifa Area, from the Notified Party.

It was agreed that the value of Unit 708 would be AED 4,050,000. And that the value of Unit 1109 would be AED 4,050,000.

Whereas the Notified Party has received from the Notifier an amount of AED 4,900,000 from the purchase price, on the basis that the previously issued cheques by the Notified Party to the developer (Emaar) would be replaced with cheques issued by the Notifier to complete the total purchase value of the two units amounting to AED 8,100,000.

Whereas the Notified Party requested the Notifier to pay the remaining amount due on the two properties to the developer (Emaar) in order to enable the transfer of ownership to the Notifier, provided that such amounts would be deducted and the difference refunded from the AED 4,900,000 previously received within the limits of the sale value.

Whereas the Notifier replaced the cheques previously issued by the Notified Party to the developer and paid the due installments on those units by issuing cheques from the Notifier to release ownership and transfer it to the Notifier.

Whereas the total of such cheques issued by the Notifier to the developer, as amounts due on the properties on behalf of the Notified Party, reached AED 3,734,436.

Whereas it was agreed that the total purchase value of the said units is AED 8,100,000, and whereas the amount paid by the Notifier to the Notified Party, directly and through replacement of cheques, is AED 11,834,436, which exceeds the agreed value of the units, as the agreed value is AED 8,100,000.

Accordingly, the Notifier has overpaid the Notified Party an amount of AED 3,734,436, which the Notified Party is obligated to refund to the Notifier.

Whereas the Notifier has contacted the Notified Party on multiple occasions to refund the excess amount paid, yet he has refused without any legal or legitimate justification.

Therefore, the Notifier is entitled to issue this present notice to the Notified Party demanding the refund of AED 3,734,436 within five days from the date of this notice, failing which the Notifier shall be entitled to take legal action against you.

Whereas, the Notifier hereby notifies the Notified Party of the above-mentioned facts. The necessity to refund the amount of AED 3,734,436 within five days from the date of receipt of this notice, in the event of your refusal to pay the remaining amount due on the two properties to the developer (Emaar) in order to enable the transfer of ownership to the Notifier, provided that such amounts would be deducted and the difference refunded from the AED 4,900,000 previously received within the limits of the sale value.

With due respect,
