FASTJET ZIMBABWE will become Etihad Guest's 32nd airline partner

Etihad expands its African network with new Fastjet Zimbabwe pact

The collaboration will enhance the connectivity giving guests access to destinations currently flown by both airlines, on a single ticketing system

HARARE / WAM

Etihad Airways and Fastjet Zimbabwe have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to establish a new interline partnership, codeshare agreement and frequent flyer partnership with Fastjet Zimbabwe.

The collaboration will enhance connectivity giving guests access to destinations currently flown by both airlines, on a single ticketing system. The agreement was signed in Harare on 7th July 2026, with sales available from 24th August 2026.

Under the partnership, guests travelling on Etihad can connect onward on Fastjet Zimbabwe to Bulawayo, Victoria Falls and to Johannesburg, combining both airlines on a single ticket.

The partnership builds on Etihad's upcoming direct service between Abu Dhabi and Harare, launching on 24 March 2027, extending the airline's reach beyond the Zimbabwean capital to Bulawayo and Victoria Falls, and giving guests across Etihad's network a simple way to reach them.

45th Sharjah International Book Fair set for November 4

SHARJAH / WAM

The Sharjah Book Authority (SBA) has announced that the 45th edition of the Sharjah International Book Fair (SIBF) will take place from 4th to 15th November at Expo Centre Sharjah, bringing together readers, authors, publishers, translators and knowledge creators from around the world.

The 12-day event will feature literary and intellectual discussions, activities for children and young adults, and specialised professional programmes for the publishing industry.

HH Sheikha Bodour bint Sultan Al Qasimi, Chairperson of SBA, said SIBF reflects Sharjah's decades-long relationship with books, which has made reading an integral part of the lives of families, children and young people. She said that over 45 years, the fair has helped embed books in society while creating broader opportunities for Arab culture to engage with the world.

Oman will be the Guest of Honour at the 45th edition of the fair, with a programme showcasing its rich heritage and contemporary cultural, literary and artistic landscape

"Each edition of SIBF carries a renewed responsibility towards readers, authors and publishers. The direct relationship between people and books creates lasting cultural impact and gives the fair its value within society," she said. "It provides cultures with a platform to present their literature and ideas in their own voices, while enabling audiences to discover those cultures through their writers, artists and intellectuals. At the same time, it broadens the space for Arabic literature to engage in an equal dialogue with the world and reach new readers."
