Dubai tops global ranking in new FDI projects in CCIs

Dubai has succeeded in attracting 754 projects, cementing its position as a global hub for creative economy and a leading destination for investment

DUBAI / WAM

Guided by the vision of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai, the emirate ranked first globally in the number of Greenfield foreign direct investment (FDI) projects in the cultural and creative industries (CCIs) for the fourth consecutive year, according to the 2025 Financial Times Ltd.'s fDi Markets data, the world's leading source of greenfield FDI data.

Dubai has succeeded in attracting 754 projects, further cementing its position as a global hub for the creative economy and a leading destination for high-value investment.

Among 233 cities tracked in the report, Dubai retained the top spot for Greenfield FDI in the CCIs, ahead of London, Singapore, Riyadh and Bengaluru. The achievement underscores the strength of Dubai's enabling infrastructure and integrated cultural ecosystem and its capacity to attract exceptional talent and expertise from around the world.

HH Sheikhha Latifa bint Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Chairperson of Dubai Culture and Arts Authority (Dubai Culture), said, "Guided by the vision of its leadership, Dubai has built an environment that gives creativity room to grow, enables talent to turn ambition into enterprise, and connects promising ideas with investment and opportunity.

Among 233 cities tracked in the report, Dubai retained the top spot for Greenfield FDI in the CCIs, ahead of London, Singapore, Riyadh and Bengaluru —WAM

Dubai's strong 2025 Greenfield FDI performance in the cultural and creative industries was supported by a competitive and investor-friendly environment combining full foreign ownership, efficient business setup, specialised creative and technology clusters, long-term residency pathways for talent, advanced digital and logistics infrastructure, and strong access to regional and international markets

These results reflect the continued evolution of Dubai's cultural and creative ecosystem and its growing contribution to the emirate's broader economic and development ambitions. Over the years, Dubai has worked to create an environment where innovation and entrepreneurship can thrive together, enabling talent, ideas, and investment to intersect in meaningful and sustainable ways.

"What is particularly encouraging is the diversity and maturity of the sectors driving this growth today; we are witnessing a clear shift towards industries connected to digital content, creative technology, artificial intelligence, and emerging creative services, reflecting how culture and creativity continue to evolve alongside technological and economic transformation," she added.

"These achievements also underpin the strength of the emirate's long-term vision and commitment to building a creative economy that is open, dynamic, and globally connected. By continuing to invest in people and opportunities for knowledge exchange, Dubai is reinforcing its position as a leading centre for culture, innovation, and creative enterprise while creating new pathways for economic growth and talent development," HH Sheikhha Latifa bint Mohammed emphasised.

According to data from Financial Times Ltd. 'fDi Markets', Dubai successfully attracted 754 new projects in the cultural and creative industries sector during 2025, generating 19,304 new jobs. This performance, which is in alignment with the Dubai Cultural Statistics Framework, surpassed London (227 projects), Singapore (197), Riyadh (157), and Bengaluru (132). Consequently, greenfield foreign direct investment (FDI) capital inflows into the sector rose to $3.756 billion.

Dubai also maintained its global ranking of second place in the index for foreign direct investment (FDI) capital inflows within the sector. These results reflect the emirate's strong performance across the sub-sectors of the cultural and creative industries ecosystem, reinforcing its position as a global centre for culture, an incubator for creativity, and a thriving hub for talent.

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Board of Directors of Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank (ADIB) has approved a proposal to raise AED1.75 billion through a rights issue, subject to obtaining the necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals, including approval from the Central Bank of the UAE.

Over the past several years, ADIB has delivered healthy and consistent growth, significantly expanding its business and customer franchise while generating market-leading returns and maintaining consistent dividend distributions to shareholders. This performance reflects the strength of ADIB's business model and its ability to deliver profitable growth, with return on equity reaching 28% in 2024 and 29% in 2025 and remaining at an industry-leading 28% in the first half of 2026.

The proposed rights issue will comprise 106,383,000 new ordinary shares at an issue price of AED16.45 per share, representing a discount of approximately 28.8% to ADIB's closing share price of AED23.10 on the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange on 24th August 2026.

Eligible shareholders will be entitled to subscribe for approximately one new share for every 34.14 existing ADIB shares held, subject to the final terms and applicable rounding arrangements. The rights issue will provide existing shareholders with the opportunity to participate in ADIB's next phase of growth and maintain their proportional ownership in the Bank.

ADIB's major shareholders have confirmed their commitment to participate in the rights issue and subscribe for their respective entitlements, demonstrating their continued confidence in the Bank's strategy, performance, and long-term growth ambitions.
