UAE President and King of the Netherlands discuss bilateral ties and regional developments

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan received a phone call on Wednesday from His Majesty King Willem-Alexander of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The call discussed strategic cooperation between the two countries and opportunities to further strengthen bilateral ties, particularly in the economic and development fields, in support of their mutual interests and the prosperity of their peoples.

The call also addressed the 2026 UN Water Conference, which the UAE will host in December. His Highness and King Willem-Alexander reaffirmed the two countries' commitment to strengthening cooperation in this vital area to support sustainable development for future generations.

ADIS International Roadshow 2026 in Munich to showcase emirate's US$56bn infrastructure opportunity

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Abu Dhabi Projects and Infrastructure Centre (ADPIC) has announced that the ADIS International Roadshow 2026 will take place at EXPO REAL in Munich from 5-7 October, showcasing Abu Dhabi's infrastructure opportunity, valued at more than US$56bn, to a global audience at one of Europe's leading platforms for real estate, investment, and infrastructure.

ADPIC will lead a high-level Abu Dhabi delegation as part of its continued efforts to strengthen strategic partnerships and connect the emirate's capital projects and infrastructure priorities with global capital, delivery expertise, and urban innovation.

The delegation will include government officials from the Department of Municipalities and Transport (DMT), Abu Dhabi Housing Authority (ADHA) and Abu Dhabi Investment Office (ADIO), alongside ADIS Roadshow partners Aldar, Bloom Holding, LEAD Development, Modon, and Trojan Construction. Together, the delegation will showcase live projects and development priorities supporting Abu Dhabi's next phase of growth across housing, transport, culture, education, and social infrastructure.

At EXPO REAL in Munich, the delegation will engage international investors, developers, contractors, financiers, technology companies, and industry leaders to broaden access to Abu Dhabi's infrastructure opportunities, strengthen relationships with priority markets across Europe, and create new pathways for private-sector collaboration across the emirate's infrastructure and construction development pipeline.

Mohamed Ali Al Shorafa, Chairman of the Department of Municipalities and Transport, said: "Abu Dhabi's next phase of growth requires partnerships that bring together capital, engineering excellence, and innovation around clear delivery objectives that prioritise long-term value. Europe's strengths in advanced construction and infrastructure systems complement Abu Dhabi's scale of ambition and active project pipeline. "Through the ADIS International Roadshow, we are creating direct connections between our government and business ecosystems, strengthening international partnerships, and exploring practical opportunities for global companies to contribute to the infrastructure and communities shaping the emirate's future."

Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed attends Liveability and Investment Exhibition (LIVEX 2026)

ABU DHABI / WAM

HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Chairman of the Abu Dhabi Executive Council, while attending the Liveability and Investment Exhibition (LIVEX 2026) in Abu Dhabi on Wednesday

During a tour of the exhibition, HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed visited the stands of several participating national entities and companies and reviewed their innovative projects, initiatives and smart solutions in planning future cities.

HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed underscored the importance of investing in the development of smart and sustainable cities, including anticipating future needs and harnessing the latest technologies and innovations to further enhance quality of life, improve the efficiency of services and create an integrated environment that responds to society's aspirations and supports sustainable development.

Masdar City Free Zone signs Fazaa pact, first for Abu Dhabi free zone

Masdar City Free Zone has always built its offer around making things easier for the companies based here

ABU DHABI / WAM

Masdar City Free Zone (MCFZ), Abu Dhabi's premier free zone and a global hub for clean technology, advanced industry and innovation, has signed a Services Agreement with Fazaa, giving eligible employees of its registered companies access to Fazaa's Silver, Gold and Platinum memberships.

The agreement was signed during LIVEX, Abu Dhabi's inaugural Livability and Investment Exhibition. Masdar City Free Zone has always built its offer around making things easier for the companies based here. This agreement extends that same idea to the people working inside those companies, one less thing to sort out for healthcare, a family outing, or furniture for a new home, all handled through a single discount card.

What the agreement includes:

- Access to Fazaa's Silver, Gold and Platinum memberships through the Masdar City Free Zone Department
- Discounts and offers across healthcare, automotive services, health and beauty, restaurants, furniture, real estate and car rentals
- Available across Masdar City Free Zone's business community

Ahmed Baghoum, Chief Executive Officer, Masdar City, said: "We're a growing free zone, and growth means our business community keeps getting broader and more diverse. Our approach has always been support and sector-specific programmes."

Ahmed Mohamed Buharoon, General Manager, Fazaa, said: "At Fazaa, the UAE community and our members are at the heart of everything we do. We are continuously working to expand the range and quality of benefits we offer. Our partnership with Masdar City Free Zone will enable us to extend these benefits to a wider business community, supporting employees and their families across different aspects of daily life."

The Fazaa benefit joins a wider set of reasons companies choose Masdar City Free Zone: 100% foreign ownership, zero personal income tax, dual licensing across the free zone and Abu Dhabi mainland, and one-day licensing, available across the full business community.

Companies registered with Masdar City Free Zone can register for Fazaa membership through the Free Zone Department Offices.

Hazza bin Zayed reviews Khalifa University's research programmes, scientific initiatives in Al Ain Region

AL AIN / WAM

HH Sheikh Hazza bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Ruler's Representative in Al Ain Region, has reviewed key research programmes and scientific initiatives undertaken by Khalifa University of Science and Technology in Al Ain Region to advance academic research, enhance the quality of higher education, and develop a knowledge-based and innovation-driven national economy.

The meeting took place as HH Sheikh Hazza received a delegation from Khalifa University of Science and Technology, led by Professor Ebrahim Saeed Al Hajri, President of Khalifa University, who briefed him on the university's achievements and the contributions of its research centres to supporting vital and industrial sectors, in line with national economic priorities and strategic directions.

Sheikh Hazza was also briefed on Khalifa University's contributions to translating scientific and academic research into outcomes that support industrial research, by transforming technological applications into commercially viable projects through effective partnerships with industry institutions, as well as developing innovative solutions that serve local production. He underscored the role of national universities in fostering a culture of entrepreneurship and innovation among students and researchers, and accelerating the transfer of knowledge and technology to the market, supporting economic diversification and sustainable development in Al Ain Region.

The university delegation also presented the advanced research capabilities of its laboratories and scientific facilities, highlighting how they are being leveraged to develop promising future technologies by driving innovation across national priority sectors, linking research outputs to market and industry trends, and attracting global expertise and research partnerships while reinforcing the university as a leading regional and international centre for research and development.

Abu Dhabi Chamber highlights private sector's role in expanding investment opportunities at LIVEX

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Abu Dhabi Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ADCCI) highlighted the private sector's growing role in advancing sustainable development and expanding investment opportunities in the cities of the future. It said Abu Dhabi's long-term vision, competitive business environment and strong public-private partnerships provide key foundations for opportunities that combine economic growth, sustainability and quality of life.

Al Masaood said Abu Dhabi offers a compelling model for combining long-term development planning with the ability to attract capital and build effective partnerships with the private sector.

He noted that the Emirate's track record of delivering major projects in partnership with investors provides a strong foundation for further expanding investment opportunities linked to sustainability.

He said, "Sustainability today represents a growing economic and investment opportunity, and Abu Dhabi has the fundamentals to capitalise on it – from a clear long-term vision and a stable business environment to deep experience in building enduring partnerships with the private sector."
