UAE President shares heartfelt tribute to mark World Teacher’s Day

ABU DHABI / GULF TIME

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan took to the social media platform X to share a message on the occasion of World Teacher’s Day on Monday. His Highness Sheikh Mohamed wrote: “On World Teachers’ Day, I express my appreciation and gratitude to teachers across the UAE and commend their role in shaping future generations. Let this day be an opportunity for all of us to recognise our teachers and thank them for the lasting impact they have had on our lives.”

CBUAE Governor convenes CEOs of Banks operating in UAE to discuss banking sector performance

ABU DHABI / WAM

Khaled Mohamed Balama, Governor of the Central Bank of the United Arab Emirates (CBUAE), convened a meeting with the chief executive officers (CEOs) of banks operating in the UAE, in the presence of assistant governors and senior officials.

The meeting reaffirmed the CBUAE’s commitment to strengthening its partnership with the banking sector, safeguarding financial stability, and monitoring developments across the UAE’s financial system.

The meeting reviewed the latest financial indicators and data for the UAE’s financial and banking sector, which reflected the banking sector’s financial soundness and stability, underpinned by the UAE’s sustained economic growth.

CBUAE indicators at the end of August 2026 reflected the continued strength of the banking sector, with banking assets increasing by 12.9% year-on-year compared with the same period in 2025. Credit and financing also expanded, with total bank loans increasing by 18.8% year-on-year, underscoring the role of banks in supporting economic and commercial activities. Bank deposits grew by 13.0%, further demonstrating sustained confidence in the UAE’s financial and banking system.

The banking sector’s asset quality continued to improve, with the non-performing loans (NPL) ratio declining to 2.6% and the net NPL ratio improving to 1.2%. These developments highlight the effectiveness of the sector’s risk management and credit policies, as well as the strength of the CBUAE’s supervisory and prudent tial frameworks, which are aligned with international best practices and standards.

The participants also discussed the operational aspects and implementation progress achieved under the key pillars of the Financial Institutions Resilience Package (FIRP). Launched by the CBUAE in March 2026, the package supports continued business growth and strengthens the resilience of the national economy.

Participants commended the positive outcomes and the success of the measures introduced by the CBUAE.

The package provided tangible and direct support, including payment deferrals and the waiver of commissions and fees in respect of loans amounting to AED 15.9 billion up to the end of August 2026. A total of 155,971 banking customers benefitted from these measures, including individuals, small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and large corporations.

Approximately 849 private sector companies benefitted from the Financial Institutions Resilience Package, receiving support totalling AED 10.7 billion.

His Majesty King Abdullah II bin Al Hussein, King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, and His Highness Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, while witnessing the groundbreaking ceremony for the Aqaba–Al-Shidiyeh–Maan Railway Project in Aqaba, Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, on Monday —AD MEDIA OFFICE joint UAE-Jordanian investment of approximately US$2.5 billion and includes the development of a 403-kilometre rail network.

This step reflects the vision and directives of His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE, and His Majesty King Abdullah II bin Al Hussein, King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, aimed at consolidating a sustainable strategic partnership between the two countries, founded on joint action and enhanced frameworks for cooperation and coordination, serving the interests of the two nations’ peoples.

The project’s economic impact will extend across the various sectors and regions it serves. It is expected to create approximately 5,000 jobs in southern Jordan, while reducing phosphate and potash transportation costs by around US$40 million annually, thereby enhancing the competitiveness of Jordan’s mining sector.

EMSTEEL reappointed as Co-Chair of Alliance for Industry Decarbonisation

ABU DHABI / WAM

The UAE has further strengthened its role in global industrial decarbonisation efforts following the reappointment of EMSTEEL Group, one of the region’s largest publicly traded steel and building materials manufacturers, as Co-Chair of the Alliance for Industry Decarbonization (AFID) for a second term.

The reappointment reflects the UAE’s leadership and the role of its national companies in supporting global efforts to reduce industrial carbon emissions and accelerate the transition towards a more sustainable industrial sector.

EMSTEEL was first appointed Co-Chair of the Alliance, which is led by the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA), in September 2024, succeeding Tata Steel in the global leadership role. Its reappointment was announced during New York Climate Week 2026. Led by IRENA, AFID works to strengthen collaboration between industry leaders, technology companies, energy companies and eco system knowledge partners, to advance practical and scalable solutions that accelerate industry decarbonisation.

UAE, World Bank Group launch capacity-building programme to enhance government efficiencyin Benin, Djibouti, Rwanda

DUBAI / WAM

The UAE Government, in collaboration with the World Bank Group, launched the first cohort of the “Government Experience Exchange Programme for Zero Government Bureaucracy”, aimed at building government capabilities in a number of African countries, including the Republic of Benin, the Republic of Djibouti and the Republic of Rwanda.

The programme introduces participating countries to the UAE’s experience in government modernisation and development, enabling them to translate these experiences into practical initiatives that help provide seamless procedures and enhance government service excellence.

The programme comes as part of the partnership between the UAE Government and the World Bank Group, which seeks to boost cooperation to empower governments in public administration, enhance government efficiency, and reduce administrative burdens and complexities facing people, businesses and government employees by sharing experiences and methodologies in the field of government modernisation.

‘Nawat Al Qura’ accelerator launched to promote entrepreneurship, investment in Emirates Villages

ABU DHABI / WAM

The Ministry of Economy and Tourism and the Emirates Council for Balanced Development (ECBD) have announced the opening of registration for “Nawat Al Qura”, a mobile accelerator supporting UAE nationals with business ideas and small enterprises in Emirates Villages. Through a practical programme, the accelerator helps participants develop their business models, test their products and services in the market, reach customers, and prepare growth plans.

The accelerator’s first cycle will take place in Al Rams, Ras Al Khaimah, running for

Implemented by the Ministry of Economy and Tourism in partnership with ECBD, “Nawat Al Qura” forms part of efforts to implement the National Strategy for Entrepreneurship and Small and Medium Enterprises in Emirates Villages

24 weeks and supporting 12 projects, with further cycles planned across additional Emirates Villages in subsequent phases. Registration is open to UAE nationals aged 18 and above, either individually or in teams of two.

Implemented by the Ministry of Economy and Tourism in partnership with ECBD, “Nawat Al Qura” forms part of efforts to implement the National Strategy for Entrepreneurship and Small and Medium Enterprises in Emirates Villages, promoting sustainable economic development and fostering a business environment that supports the growth of local enterprises.

Abdulla bin Touq Al Marri, Minister of Economy and Tourism, said, “Empowering Emirati entrepreneurs and strengthening their ability to develop and grow their businesses is a key pillar of economic diversification and the creation of new opportunities to contribute to the country’s development. This aligns with the objectives of the ‘We the UAE 2031’ vision to build a society that is among the most prosperous globally. We remain committed to advancing Emirati entrepreneurship, extending these opportunities across all emirates, and harnessing the diverse strengths and resources of our local communities to open broader avenues for national enterprises to grow and access domestic and international markets.”

He added, “Nawat Al Qura” represents a new step in supporting entrepreneurs and local business owners across the country, including its villages, in partnership with the Emirates Council for Balanced Development. Through a mobile accelerator that reaches these communities, the initiative helps aspiring entrepreneurs and business owners test their products and services in the market, understand customer needs, and develop their businesses in line with available opportunities.”
