UAE President establishes Zayed the Founder Day to celebrate Sheikh Zayed’s legacy and inspire future generations

ABU DHABI / WAM

UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan has announced the establishment of Zayed the Founder Day, a new annual national occasion dedicated to celebrating the life, legacy, and values of the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan, Founding Father of the UAE, and ensuring they continue to inspire future generations. The aim is that Sheikh Zayed’s legacy and values are not only remembered but actively embedded and brought to life throughout UAE society, both now and in the future. Zayed the Founder Day will be observed annually on 7 January, with the inaugural celebration taking place on 7 January 2027. The date – 7/1 – reflects Sheikh Zayed’s defining national vision: seven emirates united as one nation. It also evokes 1971, the year in which the Union was established. Zayed the Founder Day will create an annual national moment to deepen understanding of Sheikh Zayed’s life and leadership, reflect on the values that he embodied throughout his life, and ensure that those principles continue to guide the nation and its people into the future.

ADNOC Drilling posts revenue of $3.7 billion in first nine months

ABU DHABI / WAM

ADNOC Drilling Company PJSC on Wednesday reported revenue of $3.7 billion, EBITDA of $1.66 billion and net profit of $1.07 billion for the first nine months of 2026.

The Board approved a total third-quarter dividend distribution of $350 million (approximately 8.03 fils per share). This comprises the base quarterly dividend of $262.5 million and the first $87.5 million tranche of a $175 million discretionary dividend that the Company intends to distribute in two tranches, with the second tranche subject to shareholder approval.

Subject to shareholder approval of the second tranche, it increases the total expected dividend in respect of 2026 to $1.225 billion, 22.5 percent above 2025.

The results reflect the growing contribution of higher-value service lines, including Oilfield Services (OFS), technology-enabled solutions and regional operations. These growth engines are broadening the Company’s earnings base, adding new revenue streams and demonstrating the capabilities underpinning Drill-to-Operate.

Abdulla Naji Ateya Al Messabi, ADNOC Drilling CEO, said, “Our nine-month performance reflects the strength of ADNOC Drilling’s business model, the resilience of our highly contracted revenue base and the successful execution of our growth strategy. We continue to deliver consistent financial performance while investing in the capabilities, technologies and partnerships that will support the next phase of our growth.

Our continued performance and strong cash generation enable us to invest in future growth while delivering enhanced shareholder returns through our progressive dividend policy, including a $175 million discretionary dividend, the first tranche of which will be paid this quarter.”

Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, Prime Minister of Canada discuss strengthening strategic partnerships, expanding bilateral cooperation

His Highness Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, with Mark Carney, PM of Canada, in Ottawa on Wednesday —WAM

OTTAWA / WAM

HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi, and Mark Carney, PM of Canada, have held official talks to review UAE-Canada relations and explore ways to strengthen them, building on progress across areas of mutual interest.

The talks took place as the Prime Minister of Canada received HH Sheikh Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan upon arrival at Parliament Hill in Ottawa, as part of His Highness’ official visit to Canada.

HH Sheikh Khaled signed the Distinguished Visitors Books at Parliament Hill, expressing pride in the UAE and Canada’s close relations and hope that the visit would open new avenues for bilateral cooperation, serving the shared interests of the two nations and fulfilling the aspirations of their peoples.

The meeting explored opportunities to advance bilateral cooperation and expand economic and investment partnerships, reflecting the ambitions of both sides and maximising their respective strengths and expertise.

At the beginning of the meeting, Prime Minister Mark Carney welcomed the Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and the accompanying delegation, affirming the strength of relations between Canada and the UAE and his country’s commitment to expanding cooperation and developing bilateral partnerships in sectors supporting both countries’ development and economic priorities.

HH Sheikh Khaled conveyed the greetings of President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan to Prime Minister Mark Carney, along with wishes for his continued health and happiness and for further progress and prosperity for Canada and its people.

UAE-Canada CEPA to add $8.7 billion to GDP, boost exports by $11.8bn by 2033: Minister

ABU DHABI / WAM

Dr. Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, Minister of Foreign Trade, said the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA) between the UAE and Canada is expected to contribute approximately US$8.7 billion to the UAE’s gross domestic product (GDP) and increase UAE exports to Canada by around US$11.8 billion by 2033, highlighting its anticipated positive impact on both countries’ economies, trade and investment.

In statements to the Emirates News Agency (WAM) on the occasion of the agreement’s signing, Al Zeyoudi said it was the first CEPA the UAE had signed with a G7 member country. He noted that work with other G7 countries had been completed, but the agreement with Canada was the first to be signed within the group.

He explained that the agreement provides for extensive trade liberalisation, covering approximately 99% of the total value of existing bilateral trade and 97% of all tariff lines.

Al Zeyoudi said the agreement builds on strong bilateral trade performance, with non-oil trade reaching approximately US$4.2 billion last year, representing growth of more than 22%.

Trade also grew by 18% in the first half of this year compared with the corresponding period last year. He noted that a wide range of goods would benefit from the agreement, particularly existing UAE exports to Canada, including iron, aluminium, metals, gold, certain electronic products, pharmaceuticals and food products.

Canadian exports to the UAE, including machinery, electronic equipment, spare parts and food products, would also benefit, with opportunities for further manufacturing and re-export to global markets.

Al Zeyoudi emphasised that the agreement places significant importance on services and investment, pointing to the scale of UAE investments in Canada. He recalled the announcement of US$50 billion in planned UAE investments in Canada during the Canadian Prime Minister’s visit to the UAE last year.

IROS, Mammoth Biosciences to conduct UAE’s first trial of gene-editing therapy

ABU DHABI / WAM

IROS, M42’s contract research organisation, and Mammoth Biosciences announced they will conduct the UAE’s first clinical trial of a lipid nanoparticle (LNP)-delivered gene-editing therapy. The trial will evaluate MB-111, an investigational treatment designed for patients with severely elevated blood triglycerides.

The study aims to evaluate the safety and potential efficacy of MB-111 in achieving sustained reductions in severely elevated blood triglycerides following a single intravenous infusion in adults with persistent chylomicronemia.

Developed by Mammoth, co-founded by Nobel laureate and CRISPR pioneer Jennifer Doudna, MB-111 will be evaluated in adults with persistent chylomicronemia. The condition leaves patients with extremely high levels of triglycerides, a type of fat in the blood, and can cause recurrent, potentially life-threatening inflammation of the pancreas.

MB-111 uses lipid nanoparticles—tiny fat-based particles—to deliver Mammoth’s ultracompact CRISPR gene-editing system, CasPhi, into liver cells. The treatment is designed to switch off the APOC3 gene in those cells, reducing production of a protein involved in regulating triglyceride levels.

Zayed the Founder Day will create an annual national moment to deepen understanding of Sheikh Zayed’s life and leadership, reflect on the values that he embodied throughout his life, and ensure that those principles continue to guide the nation and its people into the future.

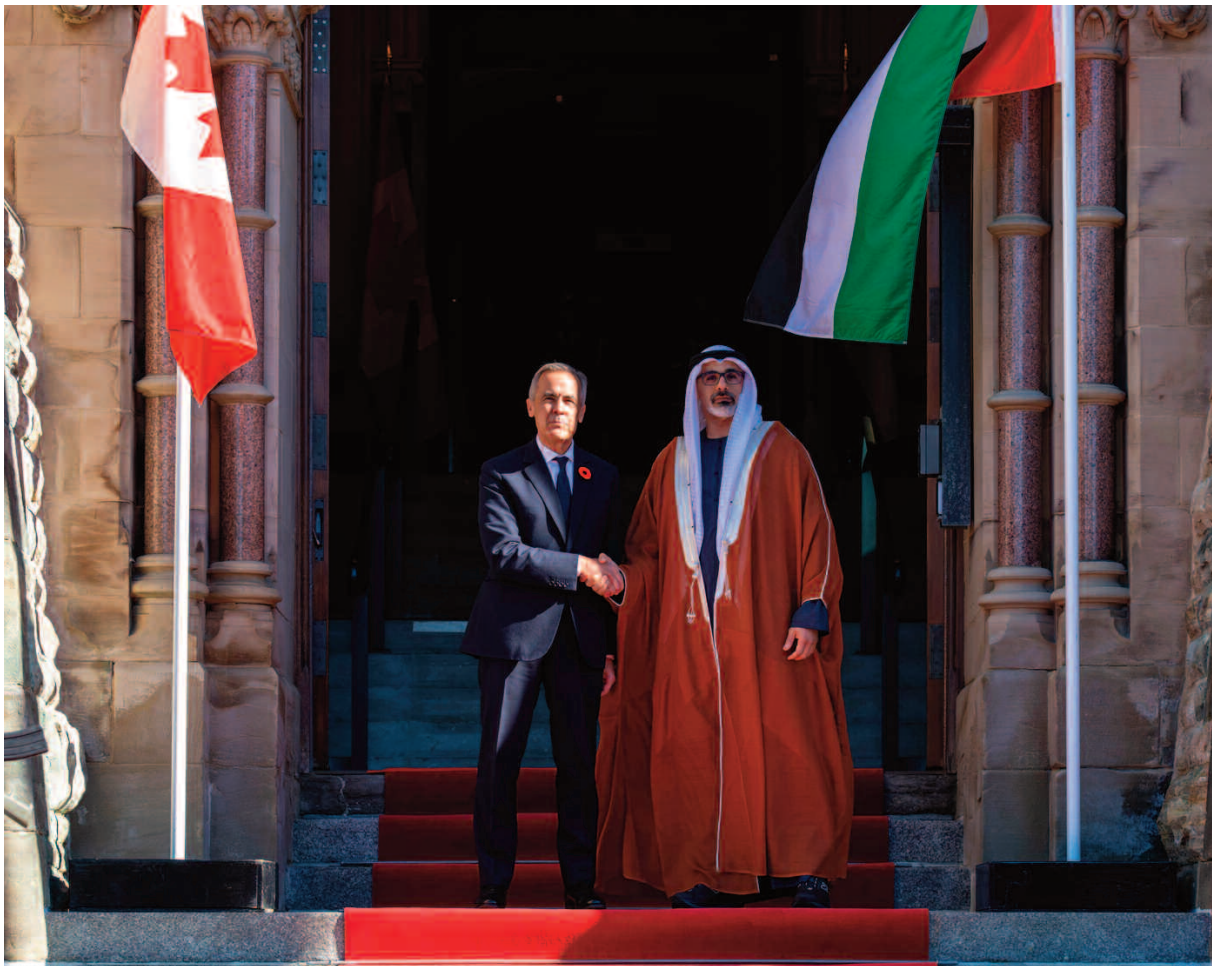

It will serve as a platform through which institutions, communities, schools, families, and individuals can engage with the Founder’s legacy through initiatives, experiences, and programmes designed to turn reflection into action and extend the impact of Zayed the Founder Day throughout the year. It will also seek to deepen awareness and understanding of Sheikh Zayed and his enduring influence among audiences around the world, inspiring people of all ages and backgrounds both within the UAE and internationally.

His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE, said, “The legacy of the late Sheikh Zayed is deeply rooted in the identity of the UAE and in the values that continue to guide our nation. His belief in unity, in people, in giving, and in our responsibility towards future generations laid the foundations upon which our country was built and continues to progress.

“Through Zayed the Founder Day, we celebrate his life and achievements by carrying forward the principles he embodied and ensuring that future generations understand their true meaning and continued relevance in a changing world. Sheikh Zayed’s values are not only a legacy we preserve but a source of guidance that inspires us to continue building our nation and contributing to a better future for all”

ADGM marks 11th anniversary, highlights Abu Dhabi’s growing role in global economy

ABU DHABI / WAM

Ahmed Jasim Al Zaabi, Chairman of ADGM, has emphasised that the strength of a financial centre lies not only in the capital it attracts, but also in the economic value its community creates, highlighting the importance of enabling businesses, supporting innovation and translating investment into tangible, sustainable value.

In a letter marking ADGM’s 11th anniversary,

Al Zaabi said the financial centre was established as part of a wider economic vision built on institutional strength, long-term investment and the conviction that capital must contribute to lasting economic prosperity.

He noted that Abu Dhabi’s influence in the global economy extends beyond the scale of its investments to advancing industries, enabling businesses and building international partnerships that unlock new opportunities for growth. ADGM, he added, plays an important role in connecting global capital and expertise with opportunities across Abu Dhabi and beyond.
