Mohammed bin Rashid: Under the leadership of UAE President, the UAE has established itself as a benchmark for progress and growth

Mohammed bin Rashid: 'UAE Government Annual Meetings serve as annual national checkpoint to review our priorities, evaluate our performance, examine challenges, achievements'

ABU DHABI / WAM

His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai, affirmed that the UAE Government Annual Meetings represent an annual checkpoint for the nation to review priorities, evaluate performance and examine challenges and achievements.

Commenting on the latest edition of the UAE Government Annual Meetings in Abu Dhabi, His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum said: "The UAE Government Annual Meetings serve as an annual national checkpoint, convening the UAE's top 500 government officials to review our priorities, evaluate our performance and examine challenges and achievements. Our goal is to work as one team to fulfil the aspirations of our people."

HH Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid added: "Under the leadership of UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the UAE has established itself as a benchmark for progress and growth, a model of strength and steadfastness, and a shining example of economic, government, military and political resilience. A brighter future lies ahead as our flag flies higher."

The UAE Government Annual Meetings have brought together 500 federal and local government leaders and officials to review national priorities, assess key achievements and challenges, and align government visions and plans for the next phase of comprehensive development to further reinforce the UAE's leadership and competitiveness.

Serving as a national platform for institutional alignment, the annual event tracks government progress to foster a more agile, efficient and future-ready governance system that operates as one team to fulfil the aspirations of the community.

The Annual Meetings reflect the UAE's vision of reinforcing full integration across entities to turn strategic directions into cohesive action plans that accelerate delivery, enhance performance and drive comprehensive and sustainable development.

ADNOC Distribution net profit rises 37% to US$791 million in 9M 2026

ABU DHABI / WAM

ADNOC Distribution reported a 37 percent year-on-year increase in net profit to US$791 million in the first nine months of 2026, while EBITDA rose 26 percent year-on-year to US$1.12 billion.

Underlying EBITDA increased 14 percent year-on-year to US$944 million, reflecting the Company's robust business fundamentals, with gross profit of US$1.67 billion (+20 percent year-on-year) supported by higher fuel volumes, inventory gains, and growing contributions from non-fuel retail (NFR) and international operations.

Eng. Bader Saeed Al Lamki, Chief Executive Officer of ADNOC Distribution, said, "ADNOC Distribution's strong nine-month performance demonstrates the breadth of our diversified platform and the disciplined execution of our growth strategy. We are building on this momentum to future-proof our growth by scaling higher-margin NFR opportunities and progressing our international strategy. Through initiatives such as our proposed entry into South Africa, we are transforming into a leading international mobility and convenience retailer and creating long-term shareholder value."

With eight operational today, ADNOC Distribution plans to open 30 sites of The Hub by ADNOC by 2030 as it advances NFR growth opportunities with new convenience and car-care offerings —WAM

ADNOC Distribution's NFR gross profit reached US$217 million in 9M 2026 as the platform continued to grow at a double-digit rate (+13 percent year-on-year), supported by the convenience store and property management verticals as well as 15 percent growth in ADNOC Rewards membership.

The Company also launched Engage by ADNOC, a data-driven retail media network enabled by its AI and Digital Transformation (AIDT) strategy, creating a scalable, higher-margin revenue stream.

ADNOC Distribution has 20+ AI-enabled initiatives across its value chain, including for fuel demand forecasting, supply chain optimisation, and personalised customer engagement.

NFR growth was further supported by The Hub by ADNOC, the Company's roadside retail concept, which offers a retail footprint three times larger than traditional service stations and integrates lifestyle with mobility.

With eight operational today, ADNOC Distribution plans to open 30 sites of The Hub by ADNOC by 2030 as it advances NFR growth opportunities with new convenience and car-care offerings.

ADNOC Distribution added 71 new sites during the first nine months of 2026, meeting its initial full-year network expansion guidance ahead of schedule.

The Company ended 9M 2026 with 1,081 stations and raised its 2026 network expansion guidance to 80-90 new stations, reflecting continued execution momentum and confidence in its growth pipeline.

ADNOC Distribution reiterated guidance for 50-60 new EV charging points and five new sites of The Hub by ADNOC in 2026.

Alongside network expansion, ADNOC Distribution delivered record fuel volumes of 11.86 billion litres during the period. Retail volumes increased to 8.26 billion litres.

CMA licenses 68 new companies in nine months

ABU DHABI / WAM

Waleed Al Awadhi, CEO of the Capital Market Authority (CMA), said 68 new companies obtained licences from CMA during the first nine months of 2026, while more than 30 licensing applications are currently under review.

In statements to the Emirates News Agency (WAM), Al Awadhi said CMA continues to enhance the regulatory environment to support the growth of financial activities while maintaining robust standards for licensing, financial solvency, corporate governance and investor protection.

International regulatory engagement remained an important component of the licensing process, with more than 250 fit-and-proper requests sent to regulators in international jurisdictions during the first nine months of 2026 as part of the authority's assessment of applicants and its efforts to maintain high regulatory standards.

The total number of licensed companies increased by 43% year-on-year, while the number of accredited professionals rose by 64% during the same period. Al Awadhi said CMA is streamlining licensing procedures and enhancing digital services to facilitate market entry and improve service efficiency, while maintaining regulatory requirements.

He said CMA's focus in the coming period is on translating the vision of the UAE's wise leadership into regulatory and development initiatives that enhance the competitiveness of the UAE's capital markets, strengthen investor confidence and support sustainable economic growth.

Abu Dhabi Public Health Centre launches 'Lifestyle Improvement Programme'

ABU DHABI / WAM

Abu Dhabi Public Health Centre (ADPHC), in collaboration with the Institute for Healthier Living Abu Dhabi (IHLAD) and with the support of the Department of Health – Abu Dhabi (DoH), has launched the Lifestyle Improvement Programme, a 24-week research programme designed to help eligible UAE Nationals in Abu Dhabi whose IFHAS results have identified risk factors linked with chronic conditions take steps to reduce these risks through personalised lifestyle changes.

The programme builds on IFHAS's role in supporting prevention and identifying health risk factors, helping eligible participants move from understanding their health risks to taking action to reduce them before they develop into chronic conditions and empowering them to take proactive steps towards healthier lives.

Yasira's platform supports a diverse range of investment strategies, including public assets, private equity, venture capital and real estate, across multiple entities, structures and jurisdictions —WAM

FAB acquires Yasira Financial Services

ABU DHABI / WAM

First Abu Dhabi Bank (FAB) today announced that it has acquired 100 percent of Yasira Financial Services B.S.C. (C), a Bahrain-based fund administration and trust services platform.

The acquisition represents a strategic step in advancing FAB's integrated Securities Services offering. By bringing together Yasira's established fund administration platform and specialist expertise with FAB's leading regional custody capabilities, the transaction will strengthen the Bank's ability to deliver integrated solutions to asset managers and institutional investors across public and private markets.

Yasira's platform supports a diverse range of investment strategies, including public assets, private equity, venture capital and real estate, across multiple entities, structures and jurisdictions.

For private-market funds, the platform provides support throughout the fund lifecycle, from investor commitments and capital calls to allocations, financial reporting, and final distributions.
